PAGAN SUN GOD worshippers once gathered in the temple ruins set in a starkly brilliant landscape at Baalbek, Lebanon, which serve as the background for Jeffrey Stafford, 17, of 2720 Angela Drive. The youth toured several Middle Eastern countries with a church group. At right, Karen Walters, a Webster Groves (Mo.) High School student, inspects the massive stonework.

GC Youth, 17, Explores Historical Sites on Travels Through Mid-East

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

It's a long way from Granite City to the city of Baal, the pagan sun god, and the Temples of Jupiter, Bacchus and Venus at Baalbek, Lebanon. Especially when you are 17 years old, without any previous travel experience, and totally deaf.

Such a journey covering thousands of miles was undertaken by Jeffrey Stafford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newman Stafford, 2720 Angela Drive. His experiences are more rewarding than can be imagined.

The local youth traveled with a group of excursionists from the St. Louis area on a trip arranged by the Rev. Earl L. Pounds, a St. Louis minister. The party of 280 persons ranged in age from a 10-year-old boy to travelers in their 80's.

Jeffrey was under the personal guardianship of his grandmother, Mrs. Sophie Meizer, 18 Riviera Drive, the Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Hewlett of Southwest Baptist Church, St. Louis, and the minister's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor.

The Rev. Darrell Ellsworth of Webster Groves, Mo., who works with Special Education groups in St. Louis County, served as an interpreter and host guide for Jeffrey, the Taylors and Miss Karen Walters, a Webster Groves High School student, all of whom are deaf.

Jeffrey has been deaf since birth, but has mastered oral communication and is proficient in lip-reading.

For 13 years he was educated at the Central Institute for the Deaf in St. Louis. He is now a student at Grigsby Junior High School.

Both Paul and Sally Taylor are graduates of Central Institute and Miss Walters, who like Jeffrey formerly attended the institute, now has entered a public school system to complete her education.

The travelers started their journey by intercontinental jet from the world's most flourishing metropolis, New York—departing at Nicosia on Cyprus and traveling just a short distance to Salamis where Paul, Mark and Barnabas landed, almost two centuries ago.

Glimpses of the Tower of Onello, St. Nicholas Cathedral, the Venetian Palaces and St. Barnabas Monastery were seen before the group boarded the SS Regina at Famagusta, on the tip of Cyprus for a sea voyage to Mersin, Turkey.

For the next two weeks, the SS Regina cruise ship served as a floating hotel for the St. Louis area residents.

From Mersin, Jeffrey traveled by motor coach to Tarsus, the birth place of Paul and known as the frontier between the Christian and Islamic worlds. The Well of Paul was visited near the house in which he lived.

Passing by the Cleopatra Gate, one of six gates in the walls which formerly surrounded the town, the motor coach continued to Antioch, where Peter founded the first church and spent a number of years.

A cave was visited where the first Christians met secretly and listened to Peter preach and where water dripping from a rock is believed to have healing properties.

A secret tunnel used by the early Christians for escape in times of danger remains intact today, it was reported.

Reboarding the ship at Iskenderun, the journey continued to Beirut, Lebanon, proceeding to the city of the pagan god, Baal, and viewing the Temples of Jupiter, Bacchus and Venus, located at Baalbek.

A bus trip was taken to Damascus in Syria and a tour of the Grand Omayyad Mosque before the Regina sailed the same evening for Haifa in Israel.

The ship remained in Haifa for three days while the tourists traveled by motor coach to many historic places, returning to the vessel at night. Due to renewed tension in the troubled Middle East the SS Regina was required to leave the dock each evening, standing offshore in international waters. The trip coincided with the period which culminated in the shooting down of a Libyan airliner.

Also in Haifa, Jeffrey and his friends visited a school for the deaf and met a 17-year-old youth, who has learned Hebrew, English, French and two sign languages in only six years at the school.

A cruise on the Sea of Galilee by motor launch from Tiberias to Capernaum was followed by a visit to Tabgha (place of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes), seeing Peter's Church and the Mount of Beatitudes and on to Magdala and then Nazareth, where Mary and Martha's Well, Columns of Gabriel and the Chamber of the Annunciation were highlights.

On a drive through the Valley of Jezreel, the group passed Dothan and the ancient cities of Shechem, Balath, Nabulus and Mizpah.

Near the Jordan River, site of the Baptism, Jeffrey and his party toured the ancient Canaanite city of Jericho, viewing the Mount of Temptation, and on to Bethany, visiting Lazarus' tomb and Eliza's Fountain.

At the Garden Tomb in Jerusalem, an orientation was given concerning the city and a walking tour began taking the group through the Old City,

St. Stephen's Gate, the Pool of Bethesda, Pilate's Judgment Hall, the Gabbatha (where Jesus was tried before Pilate), the Temple area of Mount Moriah and the Dome of the Rock, the latter constructed on the site of Solomon's Temple.

The entire historical landscape was seen from an advantage point on the Mount of Olives before the tourists continued to the Garden of Gethsemane, Church of All Nations, Traditional Tomb of Mary, the Room of the Last Supper and King David's Tomb.

In Bethlehem, Jeffrey visited the Church of the Nativity and viewed the Shepherds' Fields and the Field of Blood and Ruth.

Megiddo, the Biblical Armageddon, Caesarea and then the modern city of Tel Aviv were on the agenda the following day, with the group traveling along the coastal road to Jaffa for an extensive visit prior to departing Haifa by ship for Cyprus and the return flight to the United States.

"It was a tremendous experience for Jeffrey and he thoroughly enjoyed the trip," Mrs. Stafford said. She noted that a similar tour is being arranged by the Baptist minister, probably in the fall months.

DON'T TALK TO STRANGERS is just one of the several safety tips members of the Madison Police Department are telling school children as part of a community relations program. Patrolman Charles Bridick, right, and Sgt. William Papa address second graders in Room 103 of Harris School today. Mrs. Jerry Jackson is the teacher.

Finding Employment New Public Aid Role

"Finding employment for our clients is one of our main problems," Harold Case, a placement specialist for the Madison County Department of Public Aid, told members of the Madison Rotary Club at their Wednesday noon meeting in the Madison Recreation Center.

"Races, sex and age are really not our problem anymore. It's when you talk to a prospective employer and tell him your client is on public aid that the employer gets turned off," he said.

Case told the group that sixteen men work fulltime with aid recipients to find them jobs and help them get off the welfare rolls.

He noted that the businessman and taxpayer benefit each time a man cashes a paycheck instead of a welfare check.

The educational level of persons receiving public aid ranges from persons with little or no education to college graduates who hold degrees in fields where there is little or no demand.

Rotarian John Haynes who also is an alderman of the Fourth Ward in Madison, told the club, "This emphasis on helping people get jobs and get off the welfare rolls of the Madison County Department of Public Aid is working. Employers should contact Mr. Case to find out more about the program."

A report on ticket sales for the Rotary sponsored Beer and Pretzel dance on April 14 at the American Legion hall in Venice was made by Rotary President Jerry Maeras.

"When we were discussing the matter, Mayor Partney said this man (Gates) had a box full of war medals from serving in the war, too, and have a couple medals of my own," Dallas said. "I enlisted in the service."

"So did I," Mayor Partney commented Monday night. "Anyhow, after the hearing, I had two votes in my favor on the Electoral Board, even if the mayor didn't vote for me," Dallas said.

"The point I want to make," Dallas continued, "is that this deadline on objecting to petitions doesn't hold water. I found this case and I won it."

Mayor Partney, following Monday's meeting, told the Press-Record that he told the participants in the Electoral Board hearing that he didn't feel he should vote on the matter because Gates was a long-time friend of his.

Dallas now is without opposition in his bid for re-election.

Senate Passes Rent Control Legislation

The United States Senate this week approved a bill which would require rent controls if the vacancy rate for low and moderate income rental units in any large geographic area reached 5.5% or below. The bill, passed by the Senate 50-38, now must go to the House of Representatives for approval.

In the low vacancy areas landlords would be allowed to increase rents only 2.5% per year but also could pass on all state and local tax or municipal service charge increases to the renters. The Senate approval came despite the opposition of the Nixon administration.

try and city officials that "the company had received 100% cooperation from the union and its employees, and couldn't be happier."

"Mayor Donald Partney was present at this meeting and heard the same remarks, Ward Alderman Nonn was not present."

"The General Steel Industries castings plant is another outstanding example. The union did attempt to cooperate in all respects to maintain the castings operations in Granite City, and maintain all employees."

"This the mayor knew and had complete and first-hand knowledge of the union's total cooperation."

"But also, long before the year 1973, labor leaders did call to the attention of management that modernization was necessary to compete competitively with other people in the same business."

"But the profits were siphoned off and used to purchase other plants that became subsidiaries."

"The union now is fighting that company to see that the employees receive their pensions and other benefits they have worked for all their lives—in an attempt for them to live in some type of dignity, rather than government subsidies."

"Who is to blame here?"

"These three examples do not include the many clerks, cooks, waitresses, sales people, etc., that have been affected by loss of jobs at—as some people like to refer to it—as "hole in the wall businesses," without multi-million-dollar claims."

"Ward Alderman Nonn should consider the price of ground and property in the Granite City area. And also talk to some labor people to see how hard they have worked and the efforts extended to bring more industry and work to Granite City."

"Recapping how disgustingly sickening this news release was from a ward he represents—in an area made up of people who are and were affected by the items mentioned heretofore—these same fine working people have made him a financially wealthy, with many jobs for him and his family by these consistent votes for, and with him all these years."

"These votes from these same union working people have provided him a fine home, Cadillac, trips abroad and independent wealth."

"Mr. Nonn has never belonged to a union and never knock the people who represent and work for the best interests of all people," the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council executive board concluded.

the mayor and WGNU notified that the plans had been made and the time and place set.

"If Mr. Schulz wants to back out, he may do so, but I will be at the Chamber office at the time and date agreed, Schulz or no Schulz. That is up to him."

"The public is invited, by Mayor Partney, to listen to the debate by radio and to telephone in their questions."

"I will be happy to answer," the mayor concluded.

A comment by Alderman Schulz follows:

"It will appear for a public debate at Granite City High School before a live audience with an impartial moderator and questions from the audience."

"The radio could broadcast the debate."

"The people have a right to see and hear their candidates. Why is the mayor hiding?"

In the court action yesterday, Schulz had his attorney, Lance Callis, waive a trial by jury.

Schulz has alleged the charge over sales by Vaughn's Pharmacy to Granite City Township is political. He requested that the hearing be scheduled so that the issue can be resolved before the election.

Mayor Partney and Scroggins have sought action by State's Attorney Nicholas Byron, who declined to present their data to the grand jury. He ruled that the case should be handled as an alleged misdemeanor.

Partney and Scroggins were in remarks to judge Moselle related that Scroggins provided his office with information ranging from newspaper clippings to handwriting analysis.

"I looked at these and advised Mr. Scroggins and Mr. Dick Allen that I would not submit this because the grand jury did have jurisdiction on the matter."

Byron cited "the unusual nature of this matter" and the fact that "there is to be an election."

"Since the defense demands a trial, it is my opinion this should be tried well in advance of this election," Byron said.

"In the purpose of justice, to show there is no political favoritism on my part, I ask that the court appoint a special prosecutor. I do this certainly with some reservations."

Byron objected to the two-day delay; the judge responded that Friday was not far away. Afterward, Callis remarked, "We were ready today."

Moselle directed Scroggins to inform Callis in writing by this afternoon of the list of witnesses and of specific alleged acts to "obtain personal advantage" or "in excess of lawful authority."

Alpha Xi Hears About St. Jude's

A business meeting of Alpha Xi Chapter, Epitaph Sigma Alpha Sorority, was held last week in the home of Mrs. Joyce Albers, 3119 Yale Drive, followed by a social gathering at the home of Mrs. Pat Lalich, 2317 Arnold Ave.

At the business session, the chapter's by-laws were amended, and Jerry Bostek, an A-SAC representative, was introduced. He showed a film and gave a resume of the present status of St. Jude's Hospital, located in Memphis, Tenn.

Arrangements were made to present a stroller to the pediatric ward at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

At the Lalich home, which was decorated in a playing card theme, card games were enjoyed and prizes were awarded. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those attending were Miss Betty Bucatch, Mesdames Pat Scherrills, Carol Grimm, Mary Modica, Sue Sanasarian, Kathy Dehnal, Barbara Orms and Mary Firtos.

Mrs. Connie Grupus will entertain the group at its next meeting in her home, 1302 Washington Ave.

"To give up private business and be a full-time mayor—will President of Granite City Sheet Metal Works, Inc., by his own admission as of February 1973."

"To constantly work for unity between council and mayor in solving city problems—Has done nothing to bring harmony to the city. In fact, has caused further dissension as evidenced by holdup of city employees' paychecks and unfounded lawsuits."

"The mayor has run on the campaign slogan of 'experience and qualified.'"

"Unfortunately, the experience that the citizens of Granite City have had with the Partney administration has proved that it is not qualified to be mayor," Schulz asserted.

"I challenge Mayor Partney to debate the issues of this campaign, including the issue of my attendance."

"In my four years as alderman, my attendance record is one of the better ones on the Council."

"I have attended 95% of all meetings and I challenge Mr. Partney to come anywhere near that," Schulz concluded.

Post Corp. Will Buy 20,000 More Shares

Appleton, Wis.—Post Corporation said Tuesday it will buy an additional 20,000 shares of its own stock in the market. The firm owns the Press-Record.

Since last November, Post Corp. has purchased 10,000 of its shares. A management statement said it is felt the company's capital structure would be more efficient with fewer shares outstanding.

Post, which has newspaper, broadcasting and insurance operations in seven states, has only common stock outstanding.

Relevant Agency Services Urged At Annual Dinner

Private agencies offering assistance programs to the public need to provide the community with the type of services relevant to today's needs, Major Ernest A. Miller, territorial public relations secretary for the Salvation Army in 11 north-central states, said here last night.

Major Miller spoke at the annual dinner of the Quad-City Salvation Army Advisory Board at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ. More than 100 persons attended.

The guest speaker was introduced by Major Leon E. Turner, public relations and service director for the Salvation Army St. Louis Division.

Captain Ronald J. Kerley, commanding officer of the Granite City Citadel, reviewed activities and programs of the past 12 months, stressing the promising results of two new services started here last year.

One, youth recreation and counseling of unwed mothers. Internationally known, Major Miller served as host for 12 years on the filmed television series, "The Living Word." The program was seen on more than 300 TV stations in the United States, Canada, Australia, West Africa and in other parts of the world.

In addition to numerous appearances as a speaker the Salvation Army officer has been widely known as a vocal soloist and has appeared in concert in Europe, Canada and throughout the U.S. His recordings are released on Pilgrim, Zondervan and Fidelity records.

At last evening's dinner, Major Miller sang two selections—"Climb Every Mountain" and "His Eye Is on the Sparrow."

His current duties include planning and production of motion picture films, radio and television programs and spot announcements. He also serves as bandmaster of the famed Chicago Staff Band, one of the finest all-brass concert groups in America.

A World War II Navy veteran assigned to the South Pacific Theatre, Major Miller serves as chairman of several National Commissions involved in programs affecting Salvation Army practice and policy from coast to coast.

Warrior Trackmen Looking Forward to Bright Season

The outlook is bright for an outstanding season for Granite City High School trackmen, Coach Don Miller indicated this week. "It could be our best season so far," he predicted.

"I have high hopes we will be one of the leading teams in this area as we have been for the last three years," he commented. The Warrior track season officially opens with an indoor meet Saturday at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston.

"We are going to be strong this year in all field event and relay and should be able to hold on to third or fourth place in sprint events. It is important we place in the sprints so the other teams will not pick up the big points there," he added.

"If we can keep them from gaining big advantages in the sprint events, we should be able to catch up with the relays and then dominate the pole vault, shot put, discus and all long-distance events to win," he explained.

His predictions follow. Senior Bob Kratz, who is considered the second best pole vaulter in the state, should add to the Warrior points in that event with Dave Macior, a senior who also is ranked among the best in Illinois, backing him up. Kratz completed in the state finals last year.

In the shot put and discus events, senior Brad Hiles, who also competed at the state meet last year, should be outstanding this year with Brad Weiss, also a senior, as a strong backup.

Senior Tom Patterson is expected to clear 6 feet 2 inches or higher this year to dominate the high jump. Last year he cleared 6 feet and has already repeated that height this year. Senior Larry Haughey should be a strong second member of the Warrior high jump team.

In the long jump event, the Warriors will enter Richard Schooley, a senior, and his brother Tom Schooley, a sophomore. Both are expected to have outstanding seasons.

Senior Howard Bryant, who had an outstanding season last year and completed in the state meet, is expected to be even stronger this year. "He is undoubtedly one of the best dis-ance runners in Southern Illinois," Miller commented. Dale Livingston and John Lignoud, both juniors, will represent the Warriors in the 800-yard event. Although lacking the experience of some of the seniors, both will bear watching, according to the coach.

In the 400-yard run, senior Greg Becker again will carry the Warrior colors. He ran in the lower 50s for an outstanding season last year and is expected to break the 50-second mark this year for more than his share of wins.

Experienced sprinter Dale Williams will compete in the 200 and 100-yard dash events while the Schooley brothers will compete in the high and low hurdle events.

"The relay teams will be picked from the fastest field men available and should be tough," Miller indicated. "We are going to be competitive in the relays," he added.

The first chance for home town fans to view Warriors in action here will be April 3 when Edwardsville will be at Granite City High School for a dual varsity meeting at 4 p.m.

Prior to that the Warriors will be in the Eastern meet Saturday and will compete in the Joseph Coggell Invitational meet at Normal Saturday, March 31.

GCCHS Fielding Young Experienced Golf Team

A young but experienced golf team will be fielded this season by Granite City High School Coach Harry Lane.

This will be Lane's final year coaching the team as he will teach at Granite City High School North next year.

Two of last year's lettermen will be returning to the lineup, senior Bruce Lattimore and junior Rick Bohmestiel.

Three other juniors who played last year also will be among the Warrior starting seven. They are Bill Skirball, Ron Moil and Chris Louis. The sole newcomer to the lineup will be sophomore olin Gresco who has shown great promise in pre-season warmups. Lane said.

LITTLE RED WAGON wheel-standing truck which will compete against the Bob Perry tank Sunday at St. Louis International Raceway. Bill "Maverick" Golden, upper right, driver of the truck is a veteran drag racer and has been credited with making many of the major innovations in the sport, including making wheel-standing a featured attraction.

WHEEL-STANDING TANK of Bob Perry which will compete with Bill "Maverick" Golden's "Little Red Wagon" wheel-stander Sunday at St. Louis International Raceway. The rat motored, plastic bodied M-60 tank replica has achieved national publicity. Both wheels each at speeds exceeding 120 quarter-mile track side-by-side on two-standers will attempt to negotiate the miles-per-hour.

ENTER DUNBAR ANNEX

Bricks were thrown through two east side windows of the Dunbar School Annex, it was reported at 12:20 a.m. today. It is believed injury was gained as a broken pickle jar was found on the floor inside. An inventory was to be taken today to determine if anything was stolen.

Wheel-Standing Duel At Drag Strip Sunday

A wheel-standing duel between the "Hell on Wheels" M-60 tank of Bob Perry from Tucson, Ariz., and the "Little Red Wagon" of "Maverick" Golden from Searcy, Ark., will highlight the drag racing program at St. Louis International Raceway Sunday.

Perry's vehicle, a "Rat", motored, plastic-bodied tank, is a revolutionary type of car, just being introduced into wheel-standing champion, boasts "wheelies" of 4,000 feet in length at speeds approaching 150 miles-per-hour, in his home-powered Dodge pick-up.

Both vehicles will race side-by-side down the quarter-mile strip on their rear wheels, reaching speeds in excess of 120 m.p.h.

More than 400 other contestants, semi-professional and amateurs in all classes, are expected to compete for cash and awards throughout the program.

Gates will open at 9 a.m., time-trials at 10 a.m., and eliminations scheduled for 2 p.m. St. Louis International Raceway is located at the intersection of I-70 and Illinois Route 203, south of Madison.

WARRIOR PITCHERS, expected to be the main strength of the Granite City High School baseball team, who are the only players returning from last year's varsity squad. The Warriors will host Roxana at 4 p.m. Monday. Left to right are Mark Boone (3-1 last season), John Modica, assistant baseball coach, Tim Burns (1-1), John Stanton (5-2) and beginning his fifth year as head baseball coach, Gale Garbe, a pitcher, himself, giving the young mounders some pointers.

Hurlers Brighten Hopes for Warrior Baseball Season

Can a baseball team improve on a 17-7 record when the starting nine has graduated? According to Granite City High School baseball Coach Gale Garbe, there is a strong possibility it can.

The local Warriors will host Roxana at 4 p.m. Monday in their season opener.

Although there are seven returning lettermen, only the pitchers coming back were starters, and this is where the GCIS strong point will be, according to Garbe. Returning to the mound will be Mark Boone, a senior who had a 3-0 record last season, Tim Burns, senior, 1-1, and John Stanton, senior, 5-2.

The team is hitting well in practice, Garbe said, but this does not always mean they will hit well in an actual game.

"Every position on the starting lineup is still up for grabs," Garbe stated. "We will be playing a couple of practice games Saturday and Coach (John) Modica and I will decide Saturday afternoon or perhaps Monday who will take the field."

Seniors on the Warriors baseball team this year are Steve Ashby, Boone, Burns, Brett

The GCIS baseball sophomores also open here at 4 p.m. Monday against Roxana.

On Tuesday the varsity will host Mater Dei of Breese at 4 p.m.

Cougars Tie 9-9 In Ball Opener

The baseball team at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville opened its season Tuesday with a bang by scoring eight runs in the second inning in a game with the Kansas City Royals rookie team in Sarasota, Fla., but failed to hold on and settled for a 9-9 tie.

The SIUE Cougars made it 9-0 in the sixth frame but the young Royals came back with two runs in each of the seventh and eighth innings and five in the bottom of the ninth.

SIUE Coach Roy Lee used 20 players in the game, including three pitchers who held the Royals to nine hits.

The Cougars collected 12 safeties, including three by left fielder Bob Graves, lead-off hitter who had four trips to the plate. Catcher Roger Belshe of Granite City scored on of the runs.

SIUE was scheduled to play the Royal rookies again today at Sarasota.

In a repeat match yesterday, the Cougars managed to outdistance the Royals rookies 8-7, scoring twice in the first two innings, jumping to a 7-3 lead in the fourth and adding two more in the sixth.

The Royals were blanked in the last two innings, in contrast to the day before. Each team collected eight hits. Dale Witherspin and Sam Stewart worked on the mound for the Cougars.

Ron Rohlfing slammed a three-run homer in the fourth inning to give SIUE the edge. Belshe worked behind the bat for most of the game and connected for a hit.

SIUE and a Kansas City squad were scheduled to go again today at Sarasota.

NEW SCOREBOARDS for senior high schools. Henry D. Karandjeff (left), chairman of Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, presents Carl Macios, president of the Granite City Board of Education, with a check for $3,500. The funds will be used to purchase two scoreboards for the new annex gymnasium at the present GCIS South and two scoreboards for the gym and one scoreboard at the football field of the new Granite City High School North.

Armed Robber Takes $100 in Motel Holdup

The Chain of Rocks Motel, West Chain of Rocks Road and Route 3, was robbed of about $100 by an armed bandit, it was reported to the Madison County sheriff's office at 10:40 p.m. Wednesday.

Michael Rynington, night clerk at the motel, said a man entered the office, pointed a short-barreled chrome revolver at him and ordered him to "turn around and face the wall and put your hands on the wall and don't turn around until you hear me leave.

Rynington said the man then came around the counter and took all of the money from a drawer. He said the bandit then left headed east at a high rate of speed in about a 1970 model yellow auto.

The armed robber was described as being black, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches tall, of medium build and wearing a dark gray overcoat.

ST. JOHN LUTHERAN CHURCH whose congregation has been celebrating the church's golden anniversary this month, will hold the final observance, a Festival Service of Thanksgiving, at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. The church is located at St. Clair and Dale avenues and the Rev. Samuel Boda serves as pastor.

St. John Lutheran Thanksgiving Service to Highlight Observance

Golden anniversary festivities at St. John Lutheran Church, St. Clair and Dale Avenues, will climax Sunday in the fourth of a series of services, closing with a festival service of Thanksgiving at 10:30 a.m. Guest speaker for the jubilee service will be the Rev. Luther J. Bajus of Zion Lutheran Church, Chicago. He is a son of the late Rev. John Bajus who served as pastor of the church from 1925 to 1943. Leading the congregation in worship will be the pastor, the Rev. S. Boda, assisted by Seminarian Godfrey (Bo) Jarabak. Mrs. Phyllis (Boda) Jarabak will be at the organ. The Senior Choir will offer a jubilee anthem by J. S. Bach: "Alleluia, O Praise the Lord Most Holy."

Many former members of the congregation as well as guests from other cities and states are expected for the service and banquet, so that the nature of the event also will represent a spiritual homecoming for many. The anniversary banquet will follow in the church fellowship hall. Visiting guests and dignitaries will be introduced, including the Rev. Herman Neunaber, Belleville, president of the Southern Illinois District of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

He will greet the assembly briefly. Highlight of the banquet will be the showing of colored slides of events in the congregation's history of 50 years with Rev. Boda serving as commentator.

The congregation's main objective over the years has been visiting evangelism and of distributing devotional booklets to the local community and the immediate neighborhood. Baptized membership of the congregation is 580 people of which 387 are confirmed communicant members.

Special golden anniversary plates are now available through the Women's Service Guild. An anniversary pictorial directory is nearing completion.

Serving the congregation as spiritual leaders during its first 50 years have been the following: the Rev. Joseph Valo (1923-1924); the Rev. John Bajus, now deceased, (1925-1943); the Rev. Joseph Fabry, also deceased (1943-1949); and the Rev. Samuel Boda (1949 to the present).

Friends of the congregation are welcome to attend, Rev. Boda said.

Pollution Hearing Held
The Illinois Pollution Control Board conducted a day-long hearing yesterday at City Hall in Granite City on proposed Illinois Environmental Protection Agency regulations for the control of diesel locomotive exhaust.

Mr. College

congestion and the urban concentration of population make it harder to commute to Godfrey or Belleville than it might appear from the vantage point of a Springfield or Chicago state office. Winter said at the dinner meeting, held at Charlie's Restaurant.

"Many local students would attend some day, already. But unless there is a convenient campus, the vast bulk of the potential local junior college enrollment simply isn't going to be able to take advantage of the services on a frequent basis."

"With a Levee District study, we have sought to halt the flow of tax funds to another area without comparable services being rendered."

"Let's not create any education systems in which public officials can throw off spending restraints because they have money from property owners whom they don't have to please—taxpayers they don't really have to be accountable to."

"Belleville Area College officials have said they don't visualize a second campus. They have a fine new facility and want to concentrate on it."

"Lewis and Clark is a little more interested in setting up a local program. But the new Alton Area Vocational School probably would get Lewis and Clark's main attention in brooding its curriculum. If it starts a satellite, it would prefer it in the corner of the SIUE campus."

Winter noted that the state higher education master plan calls for SIUE to emphasize courses for juniors, seniors and graduate students, sharply limiting the number of freshmen and sophomores accepted.

National Steel Corp. Earnings Rise by 55%

Pittsburgh, March 22 — National Steel's most significant accomplishment in 1972 was raising its earnings 55%, its chairman and president, George A. Stinson, told stockholders in the company's 44th annual report today.

"It is gratifying to report that the outlook for 1973 is for a continuation of this upward trend," Stinson said.

A continuing and successful program throughout 1972 was the merging of Granite City Steel Company into the operations of National's three other steel divisions.

Many steps to bring this about were taken in the early months after the merger in August 1971. Many more were taken throughout 1972, during which production at GC Steel was raised substantially, both in terms of primary steel and of hot-rolled bands.

The Midwest Steel Division, at Portage, Ind., became Granite City Steel's largest customer and, in turn, was assured of a second major source of supply for the semi-finished steel required by its enlarged finishing facilities, Stinson related.

"More remains to be done, but 1972 proved the benefits we anticipated for all concerned from this acquisition," Stinson told stockholders.

Joint efforts continue with the United Steelworkers of America to improve productivity and to find ways to diminish the impact of "crisis" bargaining on steel labor contracts, he commented.

"One essential element," Stinson said, "is to avoid the impact, every third year, of labor contract negotiations which cause disadvantageously high unemployment. We continue to hope — and work — to relieve these difficulties."

The United Steelworkers understand this problem and its equally unfavorable impact on employment. We continue to hope — and work — to relieve these difficulties."

Net earnings in 1972 were $71,762,259, equal to $2.81 per share, compared with $45,863,235, or $2.46 per share in 1971, as restated for equity accounting.

Depreciation charges in 1972 rose to $95,194,582 from the 1971 total of $93,456,823.

Investment tax credit, accounting for the flow-through method, totalled 18 cents per share in 1972, compared with 16 cents in 1971.

Primary steel production in 1972 totalled 8,843,700 tons, compared with 8,681,300 in 1971.

Shipments in 1972 totalled 7,496,400 net tons, an increase of 4% over the 7,223,000 net tons shipped in 1971.

Capital spending in 1972 totalled $113,882,938, unchanged from the 1971 figure.

Vigorous Savings Bond Campaign Here Urged

"Vigorous support" of the 1973 Savings Bonds "Take Stock in America" campaign was urged by Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman and chief executive officer of Granite City Steel Co., during the bond campaign kickoff meeting at noon yesterday at Sunset Hills Country Club.

Veeder was the main speaker at a luncheon attended by Madison and St. Clair County industry, labor, business and financial leaders.

"It is no exaggeration that our national security is at stake in this inflation fight. Savings bonds are the only way our government can borrow without causing inflation. Each businessman can help by giving his support to the Savings Bonds Program in 1973," Veeder commented.

He explained that more than 23 million United States citizens hold more than $38 billion worth of savings bonds.

He urged each businessman to set a goal of signing up half of the employees he has who are not already participating in the Savings Bonds Payroll Savings Plan.

Plan and having half of those already enrolled increase the amounts of deductions they want held for Savings Bonds.

Also speaking at the meeting was Henry D. Karandeff, chairman of the boards of Granite City Trust & Savings Bank and American National Bank of Granite City, and the chairman of the Madison County Savings Bonds Committee.

Others speaking were Harry Lutz, executive vice-president of East Side Associated Industries; C. J. Rogers, chairman of the St. Clair County Savings Bonds Committee; Kenneth Glass, regional director for the U. S. Savings Bonds Division, Midwest market, Treasury Department; Walter R. Niles, state director for Missouri and Southern Illinois for the Savings Bonds Program for the Treasury Department; and Charles Schweitzer, director of the Southern Illinois University Foundation at Edwardsville.

A six-minute film, "Take Stock in America," which was prepared by the Treasury Department was shown during the luncheon.

News Notes

The U. S. Supreme Court ruled yesterday that local property taxes may constitutionally be used to finance school districts.

The ruling noted that students have no specific constitutional right to education and therefore disparities between rich and poor districts cannot be solved by reference to such a right.

In reversing a decision holding the Texas school financing system unconstitutional, the 5-4 court majority noted that "the ultimate solution must come from lawmakers and from the democratic pressures of those who elect them."

The Illinois Supreme Court Tuesday upheld new U. S. Supreme Court guidelines on abortions and ended a case against two Chicago physicians charged with performing illegal operations.

More than 2,000 area Junior Achievement participants are expected to attend the JA Future Unlimited Banquet May 14 in the ballroom of Stouffer's Riverfront Inn, St. Louis.

Legislation to guarantee unemployed Vietnam veterans a minimum unemployment benefit of $75 per week was introduced this week in the U. S. Senate by Senator Thomas F. Eagleton (D-Mo.). A similar bill failed in Congress last year.

State mental health workers are finding their jobs in jeopardy as the state Department of Mental Health has eliminated more than 100 positions and additional cuts are expected. All state mental health programs are being reviewed and employees considered excess are being cut, a department spokesman said.

U. S. Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) was elected yesterday as regional representative to the new House Democratic Steering and Policy Committee. He was elected by the 19 Democratic House members from Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky.

The conviction of former Illinois Governor Otto Kerner on charges of conspiracy, bribery, fraud, income tax evasion and perjury in connection with race track stock dealings should be subject to a new trial, a Kerner defense lawyer argued this week. In a 76-page motion to a U. S. District Court, the attorney said the jury verdict — "guilty on all counts" — was "general, sweeping and indiscriminate."

GC HOMEOWNERS STUDY WALL ARRANGEMENTS

"Artistic Wall Arrangements" was the major lesson presented to members of the Granite City Unit of the Madison County Homeowners Extension Association during its March meeting at Grace Baptist Church.

Mrs. Eugene Ozburn and Mrs. Marshall McElroy gave the lesson, the aim of which was to encourage homeowners to enhance their homes by artistically arranging on walls accessories that have a personal meaning.

"Spare Parts for Many Needs Can or Will Help You" was the title of the health lesson by Mrs. Stanley Slezka, who explained why bodies are wired to medical centers for research.

Mrs. James Todoroff, citizenship chairman, read a report and asked questions on the subject, "Can You Meet the Requirements for U. S. Citizenship?"

Hicks of Granite City Steel Co., Larry Diak and Ron Wood of Coolidge Junior High School, Morelli and Sister Carolyn of St. Elizabeth School, and Dave Hug and Jack Marzine, graduates of Southern Illinois University.

Students from grades 1 to 8 have entries in the fair. The display will be open to the public on Sunday morning and until 1:30 p.m. Everyone is invited. Mrs. Rita Schwager and Sister M. Theodora are co-chairmen for the fair.

Along with the science exhibits, the seventh and eighth grade students will have their research papers and projects for the Illinois History Contest on exhibit. Art works from the Sacred Heart students also will be displayed in the halls of the school. An added feature of the day will be the sale of coffee and home-made bread and rolls which will be made and donated by eighth grade students. Proceeds will go to the missions.

SCIENCE FAIR EXHIBITS to be displayed at the Sacred Heart School Science Fair Sunday. Showing some entries are, left to right, Karen Shevick, Brian Meehan, Mrs. Rita Schwager, seventh grade teacher and fair co-chairman, and Mary McGowan.

MISS PAULETTE DEROSSETT, who will exchange wedding vows with Phillip M. Clemensen on Aug. 4 at St. Margaret Mary Church. Their engagement is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Derossett, 2813 Dale Ave.

Paulette Derossett Is Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Derossett, 2813 Dale Ave., are announcing the engagement and plans for the August wedding of their daughter, Miss Paulette Derossett, and Phillip M. Clemensen. Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School. The bride-elect is now employed as a dental assistant in the offices of Dr. Frank Bellipanni.

Her fiancé, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clemensen, 3216 Bluebird Lane, is a manager at McDonald's Drive In.

Plans are being completed by the engaged couple for an Aug. 4 wedding at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church.

Decreasing Portion of Income Spent for Food

A tide of criticism about food prices likely will continue until the public understands the economic facts involved, according to Frederick Heepke, president of the Madison County Farm Bureau.

Many consumers are raising the question: Why have food prices gone up?

In general, the answer to that question is: For the same reason that prices of other goods and services have gone up—inflation, Heepke said.

Rising wages and salaries not only boost production costs but they provide more buying power for consumers; people have more money to spend than there are goods to buy, he commented Tuesday.

"Retail food prices have gone up—but food in the United States is still a bargain in terms of today's paycheck."

"Twenty years ago, people spent 25% of their disposable income (after taxes) for food—in 1972, they spent only 18%," Heepke said.

"Looking at it another way, in the past eight years, retail food prices have increased 33%, but per capita disposable income has climbed 62%."

"With an increase of personal income running nearly twice the food price increase, it is surprising that such massive buying power hasn't pushed food prices even higher."

And food prices probably would be higher today were it not for the fact that the nation's farmers have achieved their present high level of production and efficiency.

"More food is on the way, according to all indications, but it takes time to increase food production, especially meat supplies."

"What's ahead this year? The U. S. Agriculture Department says the consumer will get more and pay more. The department predicts that retail food prices will rise about 8% this year above last year."

"Per capita food consumption is expected to reach a new high."

"With the increases in both prices and consumption, food spending likely will rise 7% to 8% above last year—but the proportion of income spent for food again will be down fractionally."

"Consumers can take heart from the fact that American farmers are producing the widest variety of the highest quality food for the lowest percentage of income of any nation in the world."

"Noting this fact," Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz said recently that the way to get more food is not to put on price controls or ceilings—and get rationing and black marketing and all the other things which go with taking that route—but to let farmers know that you want more food by offering them decent prices, so that farmers respond by producing more food."

GC, Alton Manufacturers Form Joint Association

GC, Alton manufacturers — The Manufacturers' Association of the Granite City, Ill. District Manufacturers' Association have been consolidated into the new Southwest Illinois Industrial Association in the County of Madison.

A. O. Smith Sales Up 24% In 1st Quarter

Earnings of A. O. Smith Corp. in the first quarter are expected to be equal to or modestly better than the record levels of a year ago. L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, announced Tuesday in Milwaukee. The firm has an auto frame plant in Granite City.

Smith said sales are expected to increase about 24% over the same period last year. Sales should be in the neighborhood of $135,000,000, compared with $125,495,000 in the first quarter of 1972.

Earnings should be in the range of $4,200,000 to $4,500,000, or 85 to 90 cents per share, compared with $4,183,000, or 85 cents per share last year.

Smith said, "I'm pleased with the progress we are forecasting, particularly considering that two unusual circumstances in our elevator business reduced earnings by about 20 cents per share in the 1973 first quarter."

He explained that a principal reason for earnings not showing a better gain was continued labor problems in the elevator industry. A. O. Smith's subsidiary, Armor Elevator, is a major North American elevator manufacturer.

The entire elevator industry in Canada has been shut down by a strike of elevator construction workers since last September. Elevator construction workers in New York City concluded a lengthy strike on Jan. 30.

These strikes cost the company about 12 cents per share in the first quarter, Smith said. The other unusual circumstance is the Canadian elevator industry's inability to carry back its losses for tax purposes.

When this operation returns to a profitable position, eight cents per share will be recovered, Smith said.

Aside from its elevator operation, most other parts of A. O. Smith are starting off the year "very strong," Smith said.

Sales are ahead of a year ago in the company's Automotive, Consumer Products and Electric Motor divisions, and at its A. O. Smith Industrial Products, Inc., subsidiary.

Profits in these operations, for the most part, are also ahead of a year ago. Smith said the company expects to spend about $25 million for plant and machinery expansion this year to relieve current capacity problems and also to prepare for the growth it sees ahead in many of its product lines.

A. O. Smith, with its subsidiaries, is a widely diversified manufacturer of electric motors, electrical controls, meter systems, auto and truck frames, agricultural feed storage and handling systems, water heating equipment, elevators and other products.

Lewis & Clark Hike Planned for May 12

The fifth annual pilgrimage to the Lewis & Clark State Park will be held May 12 under the sponsorship of the Mitchell Lewis & Clark Pilgrimage Inc.

Starting point will be the ship-to-shore radio station north of the Interstate 270 Chain of Rocks Canal bridge and east of the canal.

Registration will begin at noon, and the hike will start at 1:15 p.m. Indian dancers from Explorer Post 6, directed by Don Beck, will perform traditional dances while leaders register.

More than 700 youths and leaders participated in last year's hike and more than 1,000 are expected this year.

The Mitchell group provides a hiking trail with approval of the national Boy Scout organization. The object of the non-profit organization is to support, financially, youth groups in the Mitchell area.

The consolidation request has been approved by the state. Secretary of State Michael Howlett, announced this week. The new group represents the majority of manufacturers in Madison County.

Phil Redick, general manager of the former Tri-Cities association, disclosed in September 1972 that a six-member "merger committee" had been formed and was attempting to "work out some of the problems that have to be resolved," such as personnel and which members of which boards would be retained. Redick declined this week to name the new general manager, personnel or board of directors of the consolidated group. He said the announcement will be made after the new board holds its first meeting in the near future. No date was given.

Members of the merger committee were: Donald F. Cairns, vice-president of Granite City Steel Co.; John McCammon, vice-president of Industrial relations of Laclede Steel Co.; Ed Ballman, manager of Shell Oil Co., Wood River; Tom Schwartz, corporate secretary of Alton Box Board Co.; and Quentin Hopkins, vice-president of operations for Laclede Steel Co.

Also on the committee was Richard Lich, former president of the local Manufacturers' Association, who resigned his post upon moving from the area. Cairns was named his successor as president of the local group's board.

and other information relating to the summer events will be mailed to stockholders within two weeks.

Dues were set at $60 for stockholders and $90 for families who purchase a summer membership.

During the meeting Robert Contaux was named to replace Mrs. Jo Ann Kalert, who resigned as a board member.

Good intentions need careful nursing to keep them healthy.

Intravenous Solution Recalled as Dangerous

About 66,000 bottles of an intravenous solution have been voluntarily recalled by Cutter Laboratories, Berkeley, Calif., because of a potential contamination, Illinois health authorities said yesterday.

The death of a patient in a Milwaukee hospital reportedly was attributed to use of the solution, a 5% Dextrose in Lactated Ringers Solution.

The Illinois Department of Public Health is notifying all hospitals and nursing homes in the state to withhold use of the suspect solution.

Investigators from the federal Food and Drug Administration, the state health department and representatives from the firm are contacting all hospitals known to have received shipments of the suspect lots.

The recall extends to all lots of the solution produced at Cutter's Chattanooga, Tenn., plant since Sept. 13, 1972. Code numbers of the lots being recalled are: TK1159, TK1426, TK3118, TK3248, TK3268, and TK3497, and all subsequent code numbers higher than TK3497.

GC School Election Field Grows to Nine

Jack P. Solberg, 3267 Westchester Drive, has filed nominating petitions as a candidate for one of two Granite City School Board posts open to election in the April 14 school elections.

His candidacy brings to nine the total number of candidates seeking the two posts.

Deadline for filing in the school election is tomorrow at Madison, Venice and Granite City school administration offices. Petitions will be accepted up to the regular closing hour of each office.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

No additional candidates filed petitions in Madison or Venice this week. In Madison, four candidates are seeking three school board positions, and in Venice two incumbent board members whose terms expire this year are without opposition thus far.

People who are too proud to ask for favors don't get many.

West Madison Parents to Oppose Dunbar Demolition

"If they bring in bulldozers to demolish Dunbar School, we will form a human chain around that building and we will not let them knock it down," Henry Fletcher of West Madison stated during a meeting of the Dunbar Parent-Teacher Club at the school last night.

Fletcher, a member of the audience, seemed to have summed up the feeling of about 75 West Madison residents who were present. A standing vote opposing demolition of the building was unanimous.

The school board indicated at its last meeting March 15 that the possibility of demolishing the school was being considered.

Fred Riddle, superintendent of schools, indicated at the school board meeting that Dunbar did not meet the requirements of the life-safety code and that it would be financially impractical to repair the building.

The parents have objected, saying that the school was found safe by the courts in 1971 and could not require that much work to meet safety codes. Last night's meeting was called to determine the feelings of the West Madison residents on the proposal that the school be demolished.

"The citizens here in West Madison will not let the school board demolish Dunbar School unless they build a brand new school here in West Madison, and it would have to be built before we would let them tear Dunbar down," Mrs. Barbara Madison, president of the Dunbar Parent-Teacher Club, informed Madison School Board members Willie Walker and Theodores Kemp, who were present at the meeting.

"It is the feeling of the people in West Madison that the only reason the school board considered tearing this down now is so the white Madison children will not have to be bused into this area," she said.

Another standing vote was taken to determine if this was the feeling of all present, and again the vote was unanimous. A third unanimous vote was taken in which those at the meeting expressed their opposition to continuing a split shift next year at Madison Junior High School.

"We will fight the split shift next year. They operated a full day last year and have only 18 more students there this year than last year. There are three rooms not being used there," Mrs. Madison stated.

The parents also indicated they would oppose any attempt to have half-day classes in the elementary schools.

"We are not going to tear down Dunbar anyway so there is no reason to discuss split shifts in the elementary schools," a man in the audience said.

The group's feelings are to be related to the school board at its April 19 meeting by Mrs. Madison and others who attended last night.

Those present agreed to support the reelection campaign of School Board member Sherrel Byrd.

Dissolve Court Order In Custodians Strike

A temporary injunction forcing Madison custodians to stay on their jobs was dissolved at 9 a.m. yesterday by Associated Court Judge Victor Mosele on a request by Building Service Employees International Union Local 98.

The temporary order was dissolved with leave for the Madison School Board to reinstate it automatically in the event of a walkout by custodians.

A hearing still is scheduled for tomorrow in the Granite City courtroom on whether the temporary injunction, which no longer exists, should be made permanent.

Others expected to participate in the ceremony are Robert Gibson, state AFL-CIO official and chairman of the new Capital Development Board of Illinois; Ivan A. Elliott Jr., chairman of the SIUE Board of Trustees; and Dr. John S. Dendelmann, SIUE president. John Richardson, president of the University Senate, will be master of ceremonies.

The ceremony will be held north of the Peck classroom building on the construction site. A reception in the University Center will follow the groundbreaking ceremony.

Cost of the two buildings is about $13.4 million. They will be the first classroom buildings to be erected since the Communication Building was completed in March 1967.

Each building will be three stories with a full basement.

LIQUOR STOLEN

Liquor worth several hundred dollars was stolen from Garrett's Tavern, 801 Jackson St., Madison, it was reported at 5:50 a.m. yesterday. Entry was gained by prying off a hasp and lock on the west side door. A lug wrench was found inside the building. Stolen were 250 pints of liquor, more than 20 fifths of liquor and five cases of beer, officers were told.

Venice Awards Roofing And Drainage Contracts

A $4,500 contract to reroof the Venice City Hall building was awarded to Biebel Roofing Co. by the City Council Tuesday night.

The Biebel bid was lower than a $5,211 offer from Quad City Roofing Co. of Granite City. The work is for reroofing only the present portion of the building. Roofing for the portion under construction is to be paid under the construction bids awarded previously.

The council also approved $5,808 for city officials to purchase used furniture from the Castings Division of General Steel Industries.

A bid of $9,995 from C. D. Peters Construction Co. of Granite City to install a catch basin and drainage facilities between Calhoun and Douglas streets was accepted over three other bids.

Higher bidders were G. H. Sternberg & Co., $13,677; Thomas Skerle Construction Co., $17,474, and A.W.L. Construction Co., $13,888. The engineers' estimate is $11,534.

Mayor John E. Lee thanked Alderman John Ervin and City Clerk William "Mike" Williams for helping the school board prepare the parade, rally and welcome home ceremonies for the Venice High School basketball team when they returned from the state tournament.

Complaints of holes in the streets and curbs were heard and Lee instructed the street department to compile a list of all damaged pavement and curbing. He said a project using Motor Fuel Tax funds would be undertaken to repair all of the damage when weather permits.

A parade permit was granted to the Venice Independent Party to hold a parade and rally March 31 in North Venice.

A letter was read from U.S. Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis), informing Mayor Lee that the U.S. Environmental impact statement on the proposed relocation of Broadway under the new railroad underpass had been studied by the state highway department and he had been forwarded to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for study.

Remediation Program Offered Again at SIUE

A Summer Remediation and Recreation Program will be offered again on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for children ages 3 to 11, according to Thomas M. Shea, director.

Forty-eight children will be accepted in the program which will be held from June 25 to Aug. 3 under the sponsorship of the Department of Special Education at SIUE.

Called "Camp R & R", the program incorporates several "distinct yet complementary" activities, including participation in school related subjects, educational assessment, socialization activities, perceptual training activities and teacher training, according to Shea.

All children admitted to the program participate in a two-hour instructional program daily during the six-week session. Shea said the typical remedial program may include work in the basic skills, social studies, perceptual and conceptual training, language development and sensory-motor development.

Social and recreational activities include physical education, softball, swimming, volleyball, field games, camping, painting, badminton, horse-shoes, dramatics, arts and crafts, nature study, music, woodwork, table games, movies and special events as visits to historical and educational places of interest.

The camp includes a pre-service training program for teachers of emotionally handicapped and learning disabled children. Future and present teachers and clinicians enrolled at SIUE are provided training and practicum experiences at the camp.

Cost of the camp is covered by a $5 application fee and a $5 per week program fee. Each child takes a sack lunch to the daily sessions, which run from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Dessert and beverages are provided.

Referrals for the camp are accepted from the special education directors of St. Clair and Madison Counties and other agencies and organizations in the area.

Assistant Humane Officer Appointed

The Granite City Council Monday night approved the appointment of Monroe D. Reynolds as an assistant humane officer as a step in a program to reduce the number of stray dogs. The appointment was made by Mayor Donald Partney.

The aldermen approved a suggestion that Mayor Partney appoint still another assistant at the animal shelter and authorized the Sanitary Committee to check into prices for an additional truck to be used for dog pickups.

Mayor Partney said that it is time something be done. "The dogs are taking over the city," he said.

On a motion by Alderman Thomas Baker of the Seventh Ward, the council also authorized the purchase of a radio base station to permit radio assignments to the animal trucks.

JUVENILES CHARGED

Two 16-year-old boys were arrested by Madison police at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday at 10th Street and Grand Avenue and charged with being minors in possession of liquor. A case of beer allegedly was found near them. Police are investigating reports that cases of beer had been stolen from a nearby business.

TWO GUNS STOLEN

Terry White, 2905 Roosevelt Ave., reported at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday that a .22 caliber bolt-action rifle valued at $25 and a 410 gauge bolt-action shotgun valued at $50 were stolen from his bedroom in a burglary of his home after 5 p.m. Entry was gained by forcing the front door.

The C. W. Hardesty agency, covering Madison, Jersey and Greene Counties, ranked first among all State Farm Insurance Companies agencies in the U.S. and Canada for 1972, according to State Farm Agents Gerald Thebeau, Roy Thebeau, Mike Tomdas, Harry Thebeau, Joe Hassler, Ed Nichols and members of the Hardesty agency.

The agency took first place in volume of life insurance produced, amount of life premiums collected, and multiple line points, the Quad-City agents said.

The agency's 26 agents wrote $16,434,000 of life insurance for an average of $622,077 per man, a new record for State Farm agencies.

Five of the agents wrote more than $1 million of life insurance during the year.

The 26 agents had decided early in 1972 to make their agency number one as a tribute to Agency Manager Clarence W. Hardesty, who is retiring this month after 33 years with the firm.

Decision on a Shield Law Applying to News Sources Has All the Earmarks of Being Agonizing for Illinois Congressmen, Senators

Comment by the Press-Record bureau in Washington—One way or another, the 93rd Congress must handle a very hot question: Whether there should be a newsman's shield law to keep open the free flow of facts.

Congressmen and senators can thank the U.S. Supreme Court's 5-4 decision last June which ruled that reporters have no constitutional right to silence before grand juries when asked to name their news sources.

Some reporters, rather than divulge confidential sources, have gone to jail on contempt charges. They have insisted that compliance would dry up the flow of information needed by the public.

If the reaction so far among some members of the Illinois Congressional delegation is a valid criterion, the bill and inevitably the record vote on legislation to shield reporters is and will be agony. Many on Capitol Hill probably wish this cup could pass from their lips.

The shield vote will not call for a typical Congressional response to an evil besetting the republic—spending money and handing the problem over to a new agency.

Rather, it will demand of each member a fundamental philosophical decision which is certain to give him wide editorial exposure.

Among Illinois offices called on pending shield legislation, three discernible positions were apparent:

1. No new shield law.

2. Reporters should have an "absolute" shield protecting them and their sources without exception.

There should be a "qualified" shield requiring disclosure only in certain circumstances.

Rep. John N. Erlenborn, the Elmhurst Republican, took the first position, his aides say. He believes the First Amendment is protection

SAYS CITY WON'T REMEDY PROBLEM FOR VISITOR

To the Editor:

I have just had an experience with the Granite City Police Department that I thought merchants and citizens alike might find interesting.

I stopped Downtown one day in January and went into the Libson Shop to try to exchange a gift. When I got home (Roxana) I found a ticket for over-parking on my windshield.

I had put money in the meter and so, of course, I returned the ticket with a letter of explanation.

The first or second week in March, I received a letter from your police department stating that I had not answered their summons.

Thinking they had not received my first letter, I wrote a second time, explaining that I had not over-parked and that I did not owe the $2 they were requesting.

On the morning, March 19, I received a telephone call from a person who identified himself as the deputy chief. He informed me that a warrant for the arrest of my husband was being served out and he would be picked up as he left work in the morning.

I asked if they had not received my letters. He said they had, but only way I could have objected to the ticket was to have come to the police station as soon as I received it.

He seemed to understand that Roxana is 15 miles from Granite City and that an extra trip would have been unnecessary. He said he would send me a letter with my first note. To make a long story short, I have sent your police department a check for $2.

I know this sounds like an awful lot of fuss over $2, but I think it is completely unfair. I tried to explain that my husband was not driving the car and was not responsible for my actions.

He told me it didn't matter—that he couldn't waste his time talking to me; they would just have him arrested now why people do not fight injustice. It would cost me considerably more to fight than to send $2 that I did not owe—days off work for my husband, days away from business for me.

And I can see how this would cause people to distrust the police. The very same people I tell my children to turn to in a time of trouble or injustice.

The citizens of Granite City have my sympathy. I hope a sample of their police force in action. I have always been a critic of people who look the other way when they refuse to get involved where there is obvious injustice. Now I feel like a traitor to the cause.

I do not have time to try to get through to one stubborn man on the telephone.

We are all witnesses to the many small business and industrial plant closings within our city.

Things seem to be pretty much at a standstill. About the only things that seem to be going up now are the prices.

This city needs new and concerned leadership. We need a mayor who can work in harmony with the City Council for the betterment of our citizens.

Paul Schuler has outlined a program of progress that we need for our city's present and future.

Let's give him an opportunity to serve us and to bring his good plans into being. Elect Paul Schuler mayor of Granite City.

FIREMEN AND POLICE SKILLED, COORDINATED
To the Editor:

A week ago we were faced with the need to call upon the services of our local fire and police departments. We would like to congratulate them for an excellent display of efficiency and skill.

The coordination between the fire and police departments was commendable. Although the need at our house turned out to be very minor, it was encouraging to know that we could rely on these departments for help.

What garbage! Mr. Partney is obviously assuming that the majority of the citizens in this community are either unable to think for themselves or that his sophomoric attempts at discrediting his opponent will be accepted by the voters.

Mr. Partney's cheap verbal abuse directed against Paul Schuler (i.e. his hole-in-the-wall business and his pitifully small financial operation), are reminiscent of a candidate unable to sell himself to the people of this community.

As for the case of a governor or a President, much of the success of a mayor depends upon the personality, the drive and the determination he possesses.

Harmonious cooperation from the citizens in the campaign is an important factor in space in the Forum to list the many achievements.

If Partney had not been a good alderman and mayor, I would be one of the first to vote him out.

Don't believe all the political smears you hear; that goes along with politics.

The door to his office is open every day. So, if you have any doubts about him, go talk to him in person. Mayor Partney would greatly welcome your visit.

BELIEVES MAYOR IS NOT A MACHINE POLITICIAN

To the Editor:

I would like to clarify a few allegations made in recent news articles and Forum letters concerning the election on Tuesday, April 3.

There is a signature on Mayor Partney's signs. Mine reads, "Charles Mosby."

Those who read the fiscal reports of local industries, schools, banks and the hospital can see that a large amount of business is transacted here.

New projects are begun as state or federal financing is received—and, usually, this takes a good deal of time.

Jobs were not lost because of Mayor Partney's poor performance by employees—resulting in low profits—moves companies to other areas.

4. Mayor Partney is not conducting a smear campaign. The truth about township expenditures should be known by the voters.

5. Mayor Partney is not power hungry, but is interested in good government for the taxpayers of Granite City with additional school taxes, etc., from their proposed project, an industrial complex.

6. Mayor Partney's salary is raised to $19,500. I did not read that Schuler would work for less if he were elected.

7. Granite City should be kept informed and not be misled into voting for a candidate who is being pushed backers to think for me.

A vote for Mayor Partney will guarantee a government that is not associated with machine politics.

Mayor Partney has proven to be honest, efficient and economical. He is a man who is well lighted and safe for all citizens. He deserves another term.

'MIRROR, MIRROR ON THE WALL...'

has to use such tactics to get votes.

When a man uses the prestige of his elected office to launch attacks against other individuals, then I think it is time for a change in the administration of our city government.

It is the duty of the people to maintain a good city government. The truth about township expenditures should be known by the voters.

operating a successful city government.

What has happened to not only Mr. Partney's campaign promises but to Mr. Partney himself. Is he only an apparition?

Most political candidates make frequent appearances before the public, whether it be only before small groups of perhaps five or six or maybe thousands of people on a local television station.

The conclusion theme on Mr. Partney's part seems to be a strange way of conducting a political campaign.

Paul Schuler has made appearances at civic functions, at neighborhood meetings.

He has addressed social organizations and is utilizing the time-honored tradition of other sincere and successful office seekers: Paul Schuler is walking, knocking on doors and talking to the people.

Hard work? Yes, but what a contrast to the efforts being expended on the part of Mr. Partney.

Granite City needs four more years of Donald Partney like this. Paul Schuler has displayed determination and vigor in guiding our city for the next four years.

Rep. Partney vote for the man who can pull our city together, not tear it apart. A vote for Paul Schuler on April 3 is your voice in the future of our city.

BATTLES WITH COUNCIL INDICATE STRONG MAYOR
To the Editor:

In answer to the charges that Don Partney and the City Council members cannot agree on the issues, and harmony is needed, let me state the exact words of a man 'way more experienced than either Partney or Mayor, Harry Truman:

On his relations with Congress while President—

"I don't think I don't. I don't have a fight or two with Congress is not considered a very strong man. It's not a personal matter."

"It's a matter of... the Congress always trying to infringe on the Presidential rights."

"And a good strong president—the Congress will accuse him of trying to infringe the Congressional rights, and in each case there's always some good accomplished."

"That division of powers makes it much more safe for the people than it would be otherwise."

And now, guess who has just that type of man for their mayor?

It is strongly stressed that business is needed in the Downtown area. Well, who has managed his business into the suburbs, let alone his campaign headquarters?

SCHULER A RELUCTANT MEMBER OF COMMITTEES
To the Editor:

One of the easiest things to do is to lay the blame for failures at someone else's doorstep. This seems to be what's happening in this election campaign.

Why does Alderman Schuler blame Mayor Partney for the present drainage and sewer problems? Doesn't he know who was mayor when these sewers were installed in the southeast portion of Granite City?

Alderman Schuler's voting record in regard to the sewer and drainage problem is appalling. Further, doesn't he realize that this is a problem of all citizens? Is Mayor Partney to blame for all cities?

Alderman Schuler draws attention to the fact that Mayor Partney failed in his campaign promise to attract new doctors to our community. Schuler was a member of this committee; what did he do?

Personally called him to come to a meeting to interview a prospective physician. He refused to come, saying he did not have time.

He states that Mayor Partney failed in his campaign promise to put city employees under Civil Service. Has Alderman Schuler bothered to check the Council voting record on the disposition of the Personnel Committee, which was a first step in bringing Civil Service to city employees not already covered?

The City Council voted to abolish this committee. Not Mayor Partney.

Alderman Schuler refers to Mayor Partney as a parttime member. One look at his attendance record as alderman and as a member of appointed committees would label Alderman Schuler as a "sometime" rather than "part-time" alderman.

Further, he refused to serve on any committees of the City Council until he was informed he would not be paid unless he served on committees of the Council.

By now you have gathered I am a Mayor Partney supporter. I believe Alderman Schuler is a very poor mayor.

If I wanted a prescription filled, it's conceivable I might go to Alderman Schuler; however, we are trying to elect a mayor.

I want to see my city, which has a multi-million-dollar budget, run by a competent, qualified, experienced public official who Mayor Partney has proved to be over the past 24 years.

Very few people in labor, management, industry, government and even parents are "nice guys"—liked by everybody.

Mayor Partney has always accepted the responsibility for his actions as mayor, and the actions of certain incompetent aldermen.

Let's lay the blame where it belongs—where it's politically convenient.

Details of Law Requiring Junior College Districts

(Illinois Junior College Board)
Public Act 77-1822 sets forth procedures for including all parts of the state in some junior college district by Aug. 1, 1974.

Non-junior college territory can meet this requirement either (1) by annexation to an existing junior college district or (2) by the formation of a new junior college district.

Unless local action is initiated by filing a petition with the Illinois Junior College Board prior to July 1, 1973—when present provisions for annexation were repealed—the determination of assignment to a new or existing junior college district is placed in the hands of the Illinois Junior College Board.

Provisions are made (a) for a hearing for areas not satisfied with the district to which they are assigned and (b) for a referendum for areas wishing to vote on the proposed annexation after the hearing.

The timetable set forth in P.A. 77-1822 follows:
Present to July 1, 1973—Present annexation procedures are in effect and remain applicable to proceedings commenced hereunder before that date.

These procedures are:
(1) By petition to annex territory to the district to which they are assigned and (b) for a referendum for areas wishing to vote on the proposed annexation after the hearing.

By Jan. 1, 1974—The State Board shall provide for new districts or for the annexation to an adjacent Class I junior college district of each parcel of territory within the state that is not a part of a Class I junior college district.

By Feb. 1, 1974—The State Board shall file with the county clerk of each county where any non-district territory is located a map defining the boundaries of the junior college district as they will appear after the proposed district or annexation is completed.

By Feb. 1, 1974—The State Board shall file with the county clerk of each county where any non-district territory is located a map defining the boundaries of the junior college district as they will appear after the proposed district or annexation is completed.

By Feb. 1, 1974 to March 1, 1974—A petition, signed by one-tenth of 50, whichever is less, of the resident voters, or if uninhabited, the owners of at least half of the non-district territory, or a junior college district, may be filed with the State Board requesting a hearing in regard to the proposed annexation.

April 1, 1974 to June 1, 1974—The State Board will (upon public notice) hold hearings as requested above in the county in which the non-junior college territory is located to determine whether the proposed annexation should be modified in any way.

Warm Weather Causing Corn Spoilage

Eugene Cooper Training
At Lakehurst, N. J. Base

Navy Airman Recruit Eugene M. Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Cooper of Rural Route Two, Granite City, is enrolled in the basic Aviation Boat-swin's Mate School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center in Lakehurst, N. J.

Aviation boat-swin's mates operate and maintain equipment used in the launch and recovery of aircraft aboard ships and at air stations. He is a 1972 graduate of Granite City High School.

U. of I. Extension Adviser

Recent warm weather can cause stored grain to spoil. Corn stored at moisture contents above 15% is most likely to spoil, but drier corn can spoil under some conditions. Check the condition of your stored grain.

Aeration is the best way to slow spoilage. The only way to prevent it is to dry corn to a level where molds cannot grow—about 12%.

If you have corn beginning to spoil, dry it if you have fuel and drying facilities. Operate aeration fans continuously until the corn is dry or can be dried.

You can use natural air drying with batch or continuous-flow dryers when temperatures are above 40 degrees and relative humidity is below 70%. Drying will be slow. A record number of soybean seed samples for germination tests continue to be sent by farmers to the State Seed Laboratory in Springfield.

But the four-week backlog of samples in February has been reduced to a two-week backlog, officials report.

The seed sample volume has been decreasing the past two weeks but is still more than double the volume received in early March last year. Madison county farmers have hesitated to send samples for tests for fear they wouldn't get the test results back before planting time.

The fee for soybean seed samples submitted between January 1 and April 30 is $2 for each sample for purity analysis and $3 for each sample for germination test.

Seedmen and farmers can request a "rust test report" if they want to receive the laboratory test results as soon as possible, usually within 10 to 12 days from the day the sample arrives at the laboratory. There is an additional charge of $2 per sample for each test for the rust service.

The minimum size sample of soybeans is one pint for one purity, or one quart if both the purity test and germination test are requested. Send samples to State Seed Laboratory, Illinois Department of Agriculture, Emerson Building, State Fairgrounds, Springfield, Ill. 62706.

If you have hay to sell, or want to buy hay, you may be interested in a series of hay auctions being started on a trial basis at the Greenville Livestock Sales Agency, Greenville, Ill.

The first auction will be Wednesday, March 28, starting at noon. Those who want to sell hay should have it there by 11:30 a.m. Sellers will pay a small commission charge. Buyers will transfer the hay to their trucks or hire it delivered to them.

Widely Smith, Extension Adviser in Washington county, took the lead in getting the hay auction started.

The ten highest producing herds in Madison County Dairy Herd Improvement in February are owned by Henry Zoelzer, Vernon Warnock, Harold and Carl Baumann, Clarence Iberg, Leland Steiner, John J. Hediger, Darco Holstein Farm, George Dabbers, Marvin Willie, and Mrs. Freda Linenbrocker.

The herd of Henry Zoelzer has the highest for the month with 2.10 pounds of butterfat per cow per day. The Zoelzer herd of 55 cows averaged 50.6 pounds of milk per cow per day with an average butterfat test of 4.15. Completing 305 days lactation with a record of 650 pounds or more of butterfat was a 4-year-old cow in the herd of Vernon Iberg with 831 pounds of butterfat and 22.33 pounds of milk. Melfort with 677 pounds of butterfat and 16.103 pounds of milk.

Parent-Tot Swimming Classes Planned at Y

The YMCA has scheduled five classes in its parent-tot water orientation program during the spring months, beginning March 26 and continuing to May 26.

Class "A", for boys and girls 3 to 5, is arranged in two four-week sessions from 10:45 to 11:30 a.m. Mondays and Wednesdays. The first will be from March 26 to April 18 and the second from April 23 to May 16.

Class "B", for children of 6 months to 2 years, will meet from 10:15 to 11 a.m. Tuesdays from March 27 to May 5. Class "C", for children 3 to 5, will meet from 6:15 to 7 p.m. Mondays from March 26 to May 14. Class "D", for youngsters 6 months to 2, will meet from 6:15 to 7 p.m. Wednesdays March 28 to May 16.

A "Y" spokesman said the objective of the program is to provide an enjoyable orientation to water for pre-school children, and parents may learn and apply the skills and methods needed to aid their youngsters.

Kent D. Dunn, aquatic director, will teach the classes. He is certified in the pre-school aquatic program designed by the national YMCA Aquatic Commission.

The cost for parent and child is $8 for members and $15 for non-members. Complete Marine Course. Marjorie P. Thomas R. Buckingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Buckingham, 4912 Redwood Lane, has completed a clerical and personnel administrative course at the Camp Pendleton Marine Corps Base. He is a 1970 graduate of Granite City High School.

10,000 Potential Illinois Historic Sites Identified

Copley News Service

Springfield — Ten thousand new sites, many of them archeological, have been identified and catalogued so far in a historic sites survey which is still only half done.

So successful has the study been to date that the survey, which was to have run two years and concluded at the end of 1972, has been extended for another two years.

Dale Hensch, of the Bureau of Long-Range Planning in the State Conservation Department, said the sites are classified for their archeological, architectural or historic value. Historic sites are those associated with either an event or a personality of outstanding significance in Illinois history.

Financing and inventorying the sites doesn't mean Illinois now has 10,000 valuable areas protected and preserved — just 10,000 potential sites that are recognized. Some may be lost to the future even before the survey is completed.

If a property is once nominated for inclusion on the Federal Register of historic sites, it has some limited degree of protection, Hensch said, since no federally-funded project such as an interstate highway or a Corps of Engineers project involving the area can be undertaken without studies of environmental impact.

However, there is no such protection where the state, or private owners, are concerned. A state highway can be demolished through a prehistoric settlement site, or private owners can sell a site like the Stock Exchange to be demolished with the valuable property used for other purposes.

Archeological sites are investigated on a regional basis, with nine regions surveyed the first year, 13 last year and 17 scheduled for this year.

Those investigations, which center around river lands where early settlement usually occurred, are conducted chiefly in spring and summer, when 75 to 80 additional trained personnel from colleges and universities are added to the survey teams for the purpose. The state subcontractors with the schools for these services.

Except for the archeological studies, the sites are examined by a staff hired when the project began two years ago. With few turnovers, this staff has remained on the job.

In the search for valuable architectural examples, 53 of the state's 102 counties have been done, Hensch said, as well as nine of the 13 neighborhoods in Chicago and Cook County where history and growth patterns made subdivisions into neighborhoods justifying examination.

The search for sites of historic importance is roughly half done. The state received an initial grant of $27,000 from the National Park Service through the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966, and private grants from foundations have provided another $50,000.

Two appropriations by the Illinois legislature have brought the state's funding up to the required 50-50 level with federal funds.

The federal grant has been exhausted and Hensch said additional funds will be sought.

Capitol Building Tours Conducted for Thousands

By GARY KOCH
Copley News Service

Springfield — History is an important commodity in Springfield and a good place to find it is inside the Capitol Building. The Capitol Building may seem to be an unlikely place to contain history as we have come to know it as the arena for transacting state business. Still, an aura of the past dwells in the structure.

Enough people realize this so that in the months of April, May and June, as many as 5,000 persons a day tour the Capitol Building.

To handle these crowds, guided tours were organized in 1963. By going to the information desk on the first floor, one of five pretty guides will take you around the Capitol Building and give you a descriptive and informative tour.

Betty Rice, who is supervisor, pointed out that 250,000 school children tour the Capitol during the span of April through June. "Altogether, 450,000 to 500,000 persons take tour throughout the year. Requests for school group tours are in six months in advance," she said.

She also pointed out that women as guides are a relatively new feature in the State House. Only two years ago this month women replaced men as tour guides in the Capitol.

Supervisor Rice and the six guides, Babs McMakin, Georgia Dirksen, Carolyn Warner, Evelyn Mertz, Clara Denton and Eva Ellini, do other tasks besides giving tours.

They answer the phone, direct visitors to various offices, and give out general information which may amount to 500 inquiries a day. But as tourists are concerned, their chief function is giving tours.

The tour itself begins by taking the right-of-way after the fourth floor. After a short walk, we enter the House Gallery. We are told to look down at the center aisle which divides the parties. On the right, under a portrait of Lincoln, sit 88 Republicans. On the left, under a portrait of Stephen A. Douglas, sit 87 Democrats.

To the left and right of the Speaker's seat are the press boxes. Each reporter has a phone hooked up to his respective newspaper.

Representatives vote electronically. A green light indicates a "yes" vote while a red light indicates a "no" vote. The votes then light up on a roster board which lists all representatives in alphabetical order. The votes are then locked in.

In the back gallery hangs the portraits of past Speakers of the House. The ceiling of the House forms a wagon wheel which has eight spokes, each spoke representing a letter of the word "Illinois". The chandeliers are made of rock crystal and can be lowered to the floor for cleaning.

Next we are led to the Senate and Gallery where we are again directed to the center aisle which again divides the parties. Thirty Republicans sit on the right and 29 Democrats sit on the left.

probably a little higher than the original figure because of the expanding archeological investigations.

State's Payroll Triples in 2 Decades

Springfield — Money is the prime topic of conversation around the Capitol Complex now that Gov. Dan Walker has revealed his first budget.

This time of year makes it appropriate to look back at the last 20 years to see how state government has grown.

In that period of time, the number of state employees has almost tripled. The payroll has increased sevenfold.

According to Comptroller George Lindberg's first monthly report on state spending, there were 116,688 employees of all state agencies. According to former State Auditor Orville Rodge's March report in 1953, there were 44,114 employees in all state agencies.

Similarly, the payrolls increased from $2 million to $57 million per month.

To nobody's surprise, higher education shows one of the largest rises. The total number of employees went from 12,507 to 41,903 and the payrolls from $3.2 million to over $27 million.

During that time, the number of employees at the University of Illinois doubled and small "normal" schools became major universities.

Demand in education are also reflected in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. In the 20-year period, the office grew from 121 employees to 1,807.

Other constitutional offices increased also: governor, 24 to 356; secretary of state, 1,077 to 4,385; and attorney general, 169 to 617.

The number of employees actually decreased in the auditor's office and the treasurer's office. The auditor went from 405 to 208 and the treasurer from 117 to 100, largely because of the use of computers.

Of course, the figures can be focused in various ways according to one's own taste.

For example, in 1953 the auditor (now comptroller) had twice as many jobs as the school superintendent to dish out. Now the superintendent has five times as many as the comptroller.

Code departments which came under the jurisdiction of the governor increased during the period from 25,703 to 61,755. The Department of Mental Health, alone, has almost as many jobs, 22,911, as there were in all the agencies then. The payroll jumped from $7 million to almost $49 million.

Here's a sample of how some others grew: Agriculture, 432 to 732; Conservation, 438 to 1,260; Labor, 2,300 to 5,011; Revenue, 1,000 to 1,847; and Transportation, 5,500 to 9,425.

Transportation, though, is a new department—formerly Public Works and Building. Other departments were also combined or created during the period, a fact which does not allow a simple comparison.

For example, Public Safety was split into Corrections and Law Enforcement.

The only agency to actually reduce the number of employees during this period was Finance, from 275 to 187.

One of the reasons for the increase, of course, is that the population of the state has increased from 6.7 million people to over 11 million, so more services must be provided.

Another reason is the natural tendency of budgets to "creep" (say 4%) to allow for merit increases and inflation.

Of course, government has also expanded into areas not covered in 1953—plus the fact that when new programs are created, the old ones seldom die.

The "stock market" for people who don't want to play the stock market.

There's one thing sure about Wall Street — nothing's sure. In speculative stocks you might win big. You might also lose big. In conservative stocks you won't get rich quick. But you'll make nice, steady gains. Hopefully.

What if you don't want to take the risk? There's an alternative.

Put your money in Illini Federal and you'll make nice, steady gains. Not hopefully. Positively. What's more, percentage-wise those gains will equal what you'd make on many bonds and Blue Chip Stocks.

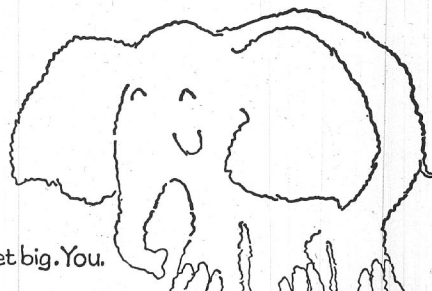

Two-year savings certificates at Illini earn 6% a year ($5,000 minimum deposit). 12 and 18-month certificates earn 5 3/4% ($1,000 minimum deposit).

That's guaranteed interest. We compound it daily and pay quarterly so even your interest earns interest. Or, if you like, we can send you an interest check every three months.

Future Secretaries Told About Job Procedures

Granite City High School Future Secretaries Association members learned the "facts of life" as far as getting a job is concerned at their regular meeting last week.

Presenting the program were Mr. Darrell D. Sites, Illinois State Employment Service, Miss Patty Burnett, a charter FSA member who is secretary to Casper Nighoshian, attorney, and Miss Judy Siebert, another alumni who is secretary to Mr. Jerry Sidener, president, Sidener Supply Co.

Sites stressed several important factors that the members should keep in mind when going anywhere to apply for a job. These included neatness in dress and makeup, and typing speed of at least 20 words per minute on a five-minute timed writing.

With regard to shorthand speed, 20 words per minute for five minutes was the minimum. Sites advised the girls that most of the clerical work is found in St. Louis, and a typical day might begin at 8 a.m. and might not always end by 5 p.m., especially when there is something important to get out that day.

One of the members asked about typical salaries for secretaries and was told that the secretary for a president of a large company might well be making $1,000 or more per month.

He suggested to the FSA members that those interested in jobs prepare a resume and check with the state employment office immediately for available positions. Miss Siebert explained her job and pointed out that accuracy was one of the most important parts of any secretarial job. Her duties at Sidener Supply included taking dictation from all the salesmen and typing quotes, bills and truck tickets. She suggested that those who have had no short-hand might be wise to learn how to operate the dictaphone to better prepare for future jobs.

Miss Burnett described her duties. Such items as typing divorce suits quickly become routine, she advised the group. She described how she had to get the job and passed on to the members other experiences she has had while working for Nighoshian.

In the absence of FSA President, Cathy Williams, the business meeting was called to order by Vice-President Karen Richardson. One of the first items of business was the distribution of lists of members who will be seniors this fall, and who will be eligible for officer positions. Balloting will take place at a later meeting.

The members decided they would like to select by balloting a business teacher who would serve as a representative of all the business teachers from May 1973 through April 1974. The FSA faculty advisors, Mrs. Judi Sparks and Miss Lucille Aramowicz, were not included in the balloting as it was decided they would have won the title.

Ballots listing the 17 business teachers eligible for the honor were distributed, and completed ballots will be counted by Mrs. Charlene Vunovic, FSA Committee Chairman from the Tri-Cities Chapter, the sponsoring organization. Absentee ballots will be sent to members who missed the meeting.

All ballots are to be turned in prior to April 1 to be included in the voting. The winning teacher will be announced at the April FSA meeting, and that teacher will be the guest of the chapter, as well as Mrs. Sparks and Miss Aramowicz, when the group meets with the Tri-Cities Chapter for their monthly dinner meeting May 3.

A tour of a local business office is scheduled for the April FSA meeting. During Secretaries Week, on Tuesday, April 24, 17 of the senior FSA members will spend the day in an office of an NSA member.

A report of the party held for residents of the Madison County Sheltered Care Home was given by civic committee chairman, Angie Hurl, who thanked all the members for participating by furnishing handkerchiefs and valentines.

The "Miss FSA" contest is drawing to a close, and the winner of the $50 scholarship will be announced at the joint meeting with NSA members in May. All members were urged to turn in their points to Ruth Anderson so they would get credit for their participation. Last year's "Miss FSA" winner, Miss Connie Kutsky, is presently attending Eastern Illinois University.

Look around you. Our city has developed the symptoms of a dying area. A once thriving downtown business district is now a display of vacant windows and locked doors. Plants have been closed. This process must be reversed.

The present political leadership has failed the citizens of Granite City. No new business or industry has been attracted here. Plants have continued to close. Granite Cityans are shortchanged the opportunity for gainful employment.

You can solve this problem by providing your city with a mayor who has both ability and the experience to change this downward direction. Paul Schuler offers new hope through his "People Talent" plans.

Using the "People Talent" we have available in Granite City, Paul intends to use a Community Resources Commission to help him plan a revitalized Granite City. GC HS Students Plan Beautification Project

The Inner Club Council at Granite City High School South, in conjunction with the Student Council, will conduct a school-wide beautification project for the rest of the school year, according to plans approved Monday night by the Board of Education.

Improvements to be conducted involve the court area between the new cafeteria and girls gym and the front parking lot, according to a letter by Kathy G. Grisham, Student Council president.

A landscaping contest will be held for students with the deadline for entries to be March 30 or April 8, with students to serve as judges with advice provided by knowledgeable persons.

Letters will be sent to local clubs and business firms soliciting either monetary or material donations, and the general public will be asked to contribute to the "Beautify Your School" project.

Helping to finance the project, the Student Council will sell doughnuts and milk before school and soda during lunch periods. A class chain was planned for this week, with the class with the longest chain to receive an hour's lunch duty. Money will be used for the parking lot.

A volleyball marathon is planned for the weekend of May 15-16 in the boys gym. General admission will be $1.

Miss Seebold Named Orientation Leader

Debbie Seebold, 23 Paul Drive, is one of 28 students at the University of Missouri-Columbia selected to serve as a leader in UMC's summer orientation program for incoming freshmen June 17-July 13.

A total of 14 women and 12 men students were chosen from more than 260 applicants for the positions which pay $500 plus room and board, according to Ms. Mary Harris, summer orientation coordinator.

Ms. Harris said the students were chosen on the basis of good grades and their abilities to work as team members, relate to their peers and initiate programs creatively. The students will participate in a 10-day training program prior to the summer program in preparation for conducting campus tours and talking with new students and their parents about the total life at the university.

The primary goal of the summer program, according to David J. Markee, director of the Center for Student Life, is to acquaint each entering student and his parents with his new environment and to assist the student in designing a program of meaningful education for his freshman year.

Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society Will 'Show and Do'

By DONNA HARTWICK
Press-Record Staff Writer
A group of residents interested in restoring older homes and developing a beautification plan for the downtown area and surrounding neighborhoods have organized the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society as the first phase of a long-range plan to improve the appearance of homes and increase their value.

Officers elected to lead the group of 15 couples are Walt Padgett, president; Mrs. Roger Melford, secretary; John K. Melford, treasurer; and Mrs. Judy Padgett, historian. Tentative objective of the program is to contact the home owners within the boundaries of 24th Street to Niedringhaus Ave. and to Niedringhaus Ave. and Madison Avenue, and enroll them as families in the society.

The group will meet in the members' homes to discuss economical and sound ideas for improvement and restoration of their property. Mrs. Padgett announced. Purpose of the society is to "show by doing" to anyone on a limited budget that an old home can be modernized and improved without an exorbitant price for the decorative work. Eventually the group plans to invite any local householder to become a member of the organization to exchange constructive ideas.

Many older homes can have a refreshing and appealing as well as an attractive look with a fresh coat of paint and the addition of shutters at windows and doors, and stone or brick work added to the original structure, Mrs. Padgett explained. The society will begin a letter-writing campaign to invite merchants, the Chamber of Commerce, the mayor and residents to participate in the project. The society members are open to any suggestions that will expedite the program, Mrs. Padgett said.

In the future, the society also will begin to compile the information relating to the history of some of the older homes and background of the early settlers. It is hoped to include pictures of the early construction of the area to provide an interesting review of past eras for Granite Cityans.

With the trend to retain historical buildings of cities and towns spreading throughout the country, the historical phase should prove to be both an interesting and a satisfying part of the overall program, Mrs. Padgett added. She said an extensive survey was made in the downtown area in 1968 by a professional group, sponsored by federal funds. Their findings held that this particular area of the city was deteriorating and could be revived only by residents of an organization to formulate specific plans for home improvements and to encourage pride of the home owners.

Landscaping ideas also will be a part of the meeting topics and will be designed by members to enhance the overall appearance of the residences. In the final analysis, the society hopes to work with business men in the commercial section of the downtown area as well as the residents of outlying sections, Mrs. Padgett said.

Anyone who wishes more information or would like to attend the meetings may contact Mrs. Padgett at 451-9043, or John Melford at 451-5785. Officers of the newly organized society conferred last week with the Lafayette Square Historical Society of St. Louis. Projects of mutual interest will be discussed and ideas exchanged with the hope that the St. Louis Society can assist the local group in developing formative plans here.

Renewing of Older Homes Catching On

By DONNA HARTWICK
Press-Record Staff Writer
(Reprinted Pictures on Page 40)
Steaming off old wallpaper and removing old paint and varnish from woodwork and trim is an entire 7 or 8-room house in an old neighborhood in Granite City. But it is the long-range plan of members of the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society of Granite City. Remodeling older homes into usually attractive residences inspires owners to use their initiative, ingenuity and creative talents, and perform such tasks on limited budgets. It also gives the householder a keen sense of satisfaction and accomplishment when the project is completed. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Padgett purchased a house at 2210 Delmar Ave. and are remodeling each of the rooms as time permits. With an imaginative approach to decorating, they scraped and dug off old plaster that covered the original chimney. They used a lot of the old brick to create a stone-look area for preparing meals. New cabinets in a dark-tone wood, featuring white glass knobs, were installed on one Continued on Page 4

Congratulations!

Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society of Granite City

First Bank applauds the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society for taking the first positive step to vitalize the restoration of a large downtown area. The Society is still in its formative stages but, at this early date, results of their initial efforts are clearly visible.

What the Society has accomplished, and its vigorous action plans for the future, are indicative of what the combined efforts of concerned community-minded citizens can do.

First Bank is confident the action initiated by the Society will trigger similar actions by other concerned groups in other areas of the Quad-Cities.

As always, First Bank is ready to lend its support to this commendable effort, and to make loans to individual home owners to finance improvements to their property.

Whitsell Asks Ruling on New Sheriff's Wage Pact

An opinion on the legality of County Board action approving a new wage agreement with the sheriff's department has been requested of State's Attorney Nicholas Byron by Louis Whitsell, County Board member and supervisor of Nemoind Township.

In his request for the opinion, Whitsell said:

"The Madison County Board voted at the March 14th meeting to approve a new wage agreement with the Sheriff's Department, which is needed and long overdue.

"This agreement will amount to $16,000 over the 1973 budget. "State law prohibits the county from spending any money not appropriated in the budget.

The law particularly forbids entering into any contract that adds to the county's expenditures after the budget has been approved.

"I am certain that we were told by the Department of Local Government Affairs that if revenue sharing monies were used in violation of the law, we will be required to pay back 110% and they also went on to warn us that revenue sharing monies must be incorporated into our budget before it can be spent.

"Personally, I have no disagreements with the wage contract and I support better working agreements for all county employees, but the County Board made one more mistake when the sheriff was told to take care of his wage increases after the budget was passed.

"I recall another mistake that was made recently which I strongly opposed before the County Board, that passed over my objections and has the county near bankruptcy. That mistake, as you well know, was the county charging a service charge for tax collections.

"My fear is that the federal government will step in and demand return of their revenue sharing monies to further cripple the county.

"Please give us your opinion on this matter in writing, so that we may rest assured that the legal procedures have been followed.

MOTORCYCLE STOLEN

Gary Williams, 2620 Missouri Ave., reported at 5:55 p.m. Monday that his 1973 motorcycle was stolen from his home during the night.

Wildlife Program Kiwanis Topic

Paul Schwarz of St. Louis, a third generation member of the Schwartz family which has owned and operated the Schwartz Taxidermist Shop in St. Louis, was guest speaker at the Granite City Kiwanis meeting Monday night at Charlie's Restaurant.

His topic on animals and birds as well as other game was relative to National Wildlife Week being observed this week.

The speaker informed the club his family has been in the taxidermist business for 90 years.

Hunters and fishermen are maintaining the wildlife program by buying licenses and enjoying the sport in certain seasons of the year, Schwarz said.

Schwarz said that hunters are not destroying animals, but through the conservation program have increased the number of animals that were at one time becoming extinct.

He said that at one time there were only about 400 deer in Missouri, but in 1972 there were 95,000 killed. Turkeys were fast becoming extinct but now there is a regular turkey season honored by the hunters, he added.

Jack Bridger, associated with the Madison County Federal Savings and Loan Co., was a guest and introduced as a prospective member. Other guests attending included Ernie Harold and his son, Brian, of St. Louis.

Hartigan Seen as Next Governor or As Chicago Mayor

Copley News Service

Springfield—Only the governor snubs the lieutenant governor.

Lt. Gov. Neil F. Hartigan receives due respect from just about everyone else at the Statehouse.

It is because of any sympathy he attracts because of his treatment by Gov. Dan Walker or because Hartigan is a nice guy, which he is.

It's because a lot of people think he is going to be a big man in Illinois politics one of these days and nobody wants to be on the wrong side of a man like that.

It is not because of the odds are far better than even that before the next four years are up, Hartigan will run for re-election in 1975, it would come as no great surprise if Hartigan were to get the nod as his successor.

However, the word brought down to Springfield by Chicago legislators and politicians is that Daley is more likely than not to seek a sixth consecutive term.

Far from being dismayed by a mounting tide of criticism, they reason, the mayor will bid for one more resounding electoral victory just to show his critics that he is still the boss. Linked to this theory is a belief that if Daley stays for one more term as mayor, he will prefer someone other than Walker in the governor's chair for another four years.

The mayor and the governor currently are in an uneasy truce.

Walker's attitude on such sensitive Chicago issues as aid for the Chicago Transit Authority and school funding are far from palatable to Daley.

There is every indication that Chicago is going to fare far worse under the Democratic administration of Walker than it did under that of Republican Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie.

Besides that, Walker refuses to accept the second-class political status of the last previous

THEFT AT SCHOOL

Two cassette recorders valued at $148 each and two tapes valued at $10 each were stolen in a burglary of Netheringham School during the night, it was reported Monday. Entry was gained by breaking a window.

1971 AUTO DAMAGED

ly elected Democratic governor, Otto Kerner, who publicly bowed to Daley as the state's party leader.

Walker not only wants to run the show himself, but gives every indication that he welcomes outright opposition from Daley.

The feeling is growing that Walker has his eyes on the White House and wants to vault into national prominence as the Democrat who toppled Daley and ushered in a new era of morality in Illinois politics.

But there is Statehouse skepticism that Walker will be able to pull this off and that, instead, he will founder as governor in trying.

It is already being taken almost for granted that he will have strong primary opposition in 1976.

A comeback by former Lt. Gov. Paul Simon is freely predicted. Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett also is rated as a possibility.

But there is more and more Capitol talk of well-liked Neil Hartigan. His would be a brand new face. And in the new era of politics, this is what the voters seem to prefer.

Gun Club Members Oppose Control Bills

An opinion poll of members of the John Marshall Gun Club near Granite City has revealed that all members contacted oppose current gun legislation pending in Springfield. Bob Carroll, chief range officer and club instructor, announced Tuesday.

Carroll said of about 300 club members, more than 290 were contacted in the poll and expressed unanimous opposition to House Bill 384 and Senate Bill 167.

Both bills would outlaw the sale, manufacture and possession of hand guns by other than policemen and authorized officials. Gun club members would be allowed to own hand guns only if the guns and ammunition were stored at the gun clubs.

Club officials are urging all members to contact their state officials and indicate their opposition to the gun controls.

SCHOOL BURGLARIZED
Office and teacher's desks were ransacked in a burglary of Emerson School during the night, it was reported Monday. Entry was gained by pushing out a window in a kindergarten room.

GC Town Budget Posted; Shows $18,000 Decline

A 1973-74 Granite City Township budget of $332,425—a reduction of $18,334 below that of last year—has been posted for public inspection in the office of City Clerk Robert Stevens, and will be subject to a public hearing and Town Board action on April 10.

The new appropriation measure projects expenditures of $119,175 in the town fund, down from $137,459 last year; $189,750 in the general assistance fund, down from $200,000 last year, and $133,000 in the municipal retirement fund, unchanged from last year.

Stevens, who also is town clerk, said a public hearing on the new budget will be held at 6 p.m. Tuesday, April 10, in the City Council chambers, followed at 7 p.m. by the annual town meeting in which action will be taken.

Although estimated expenditures for town officers increased to $25,210 from $23,010 in the new town fund budget, the expense for the assessor's office increased to $77,690 from $74,840, these rises were offset by elimination of expenses for the assessor's office. Last year the budget for the collector's office was $23,559. Under a new constitutional provision eliminating use of fees for paying costs of the collector's office, the tax collection work has been assumed by the county treasurer's office.

The $23,210 appropriation for compensation of town officers includes a salary of $14,000 for the assessor, up $1,000 from last year, and a salary of $7,200 for the township supervisor, up from $6,000 last year.

The new town budget also appropriates $4,650 for election expenses, compared to $150 for that purpose last year. Other appropriations in the town fund, with last year's figures in parentheses, include: Assessor's office expense $77,690 ($74,840); Other services and expenses, $6,600 (same); Contingencies, $1,200 ($1,800); Insurance, $1,900 ($1,200).

The budget for the general assistance fund provides $189,750 for home relief, down slightly from last year's $190,000. Of this part of the budget, $122,000 is for food, same as last year. Hospitalization costs are projected at $15,100, same as last year; $500 is provided for insti-

MELVIN HILL

Melvin E. "Red" Hill, 43, of 2326 Delmar Ave., is a candidate for Granite City alderman from the Second Ward. Two are seeking the office. Born in East St. Louis, he has resided here 18 years. He is employed in the assembly department of A. O. Smith Corp. and served 10 years as secretary-treasurer of Boiler-makers Local 575. Hill has a high school education and attends the United Pentecostal Church. He now is a member of Boiler-makers Local 483 and United Auto Workers Local 1715 and is a three-year board member of the Madison County Mental Health Association. Hill and his wife, Joan, have four sons, Curtis, 24, Randall, 21, Michael, 19, and Brock, 10, and a daughter, Rebecca, 15. His comments: "My candidacy is the direct result of what I consider the near total disregard of the taxpayers by some of our public officials. "If elected as alderman, I intend to keep in close contact with residents of the Second Ward. At a time when the taxpayer is paying more and more, his voice is being heard less and less. It's time to put the taxpayer first."

THREE-AUTO ACCIDENT
Auto driven by Warren Whitehead, East St. Louis, Corneil L. Perkins, 1707 Delmar Ave., and Gregory Spurgeon, Dorsey, Ill., were in an accident at 7:45 a.m. Tuesday at 17th and State streets. Perkins was charged with a right-of-way violation.

tutional care at the county home, $500 for other institutional care, and $1,200 for burials. These projections are all unchanged from last year's budget. Administration costs for general assistance operations are budgeted $34,100, compared to $31,850 last year, and contingencies are budgeted at $500.

JOHN ZIKOVICH

John Zikovich, 58, of 2433 Center St., is a candidate for Granite City alderman from the Fourth Ward. There are two seeking the office. Born in St. Louis, Zikovich has lived here 51 years. He was employed at American Steel Foundries for 36 years and is retired as a supervisor. He attended McKinley and Central Schools and Granite City High School. He is a member of the First Baptist Church and has participated in Granite City Moose and Eagle lodges. Zikovich has served as a precinct committeeman for two terms in the 18th Precinct, Ward Four. He and his wife have two daughters and three grandchildren and he has a stepson who has a child. His comments: "As a conscientious citizen, I have taxes and reckless spending. I am compelled to vigorously oppose Alderman Robertson's voting record of extravagance. "As his precinct committeeman his first two years as alderman, I was not honored by a single courtesy call concerning views of our area. I have never met him since he was alderman."

Bill to Protect Conscientious Abortion Foes
State Senator Sam M. Vadalabene, D-Edwardsville, is co-sponsor of a bill to protect the rights of persons conscientiously opposed to abortion. The bill, known as the "Abortion Conscientious Objector's Bill," was prompted by a Supreme Court ruling that declared unconstitutional state laws, including that of Illinois, restricting resulting abortions. Until the ruling, Illinois prohibited abortions except where the life of the mother was endangered.

The decision, after more than two years of involved court proceedings, now gives a woman the right to have an abortion—subject to her doctor's approval—during the first three months of pregnancy. "This bill," Vadalabene said, "would exempt from damage liability hospitals, physicians, nurses and others refusing to recommend, perform or help perform abortions. "It would also hold persons or groups answerable in civil damages—from $2,500 up to three times the amount of damages—on the basis of discriminating against those who refuse to perform abortions. This includes discrimination in granting of hospital privileges and so forth. "The measure does not circumvent the Supreme Court ruling, nor does it infringe in any way upon the right of a woman to undergo an abortion according to terms of the court decision. "It gives those who are morally or otherwise opposed to abortion the right to refuse to participate in the abortion procedure," Vadalabene concluded.

Organizational Meet For Campers Sunday
The National Campers and Hikers Association field directors, Pete and Elaine Choma of Trenton, will hold an organizational meeting for all campers who are interested in joining a local chapter or forming a new one Sunday at 2 p.m. at East End Park Field House, Wood River.

The NCHA is a non-profit, volunteer, educational organization. As of October 1972, there was a membership of 69,687 families who are interested in helping conserve our natural resources and promote better camping. The nickname is "The Friendliest People in the World."

Edward E. Dunham, Mill St., was injured when his auto struck a utility pole on the parking lot of the Gem Store, 5401 Collinsville Road, at 9:40 p.m. Monday. He was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis, for treatment.

EARL BAKER

Earl E. Baker, 38, of 2348 O'Hare Ave., is a candidate for Granite City alderman from the Sixth Ward. There are three contenders. A native and lifelong resident of Granite City, he is a graduate of Granite City High School and the Steelworkers' four-year course at the University of Illinois. He is employed as a tester in the department of metallurgy and quality control at Granite City Steel Co. Baker attends Nidriehaus United Methodist Church and is a member of Moose Lodge 272, recording secretary of United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America Local 16 and a committee member of the Granite City Steel Employees Federal Credit Union. He and his wife, Shirley, have a son, Timothy. His reason for seeking public office is "to have the opportunity to work for the betterment of my community, and I would like to strive for better coordination in City Hall."

Listed below are the issues he considers important: 1. "We have an effective police department I believe, however, that in order to keep it effective, additional manpower is needed along with more modern equipment. 2. "I feel the same in regard to our fire department. It is efficient, but needs upgrading. We need to replace outdated fire trucks and equipment, perhaps even replacing the old fire station on Namekook Road with a new one. 3. "I naturally will support a drainage program which will relieve the sormwater problem. 4. "I will vote to keep our sewage treatment plant bill over the secondary plant goes into operation. 5. "Our school children are our most important assets. I will definitely help all I can to keep and add to our school crossing guards for safe return of our children to and from school. 6. "Upgrade our humane department by hiring additional men to handle the stray dog problem. 7. "I will support resurfacing streets which are in need of repair. 8. "I support updating of the subdivision building codes on boarding up vacant houses."

Pastor Has Plan to Fight Depression and Worry

By REV. W. LEE TRUMAN
Copley News Service
This past summer I had surgery for a ruptured spinal disc. It had caused me a great deal of pain and partial paralysis.

Now, three months later, I have 85% mobility, and am looking forward to some great skiing this winter.

The physical problems were not nearly as difficult as the mental battle. For one, I asked for and received the privilege of working in a mission church, and it needs every ounce of energy I can give to make this church and its dream come into being.

There were a thousand reasons why I couldn't take the day to be taken out of the picture for surgery. Through this personal experience, I'll give you a checklist of how I learned to fight both my depression and my anxiety.

I believe these two have laid more people down than any amount of back trouble.

The first is to accept the fact that worry can be the most destructive enemy in the human personality. This is the most life-destroying habit that you can allow.

Be aware that worry can become a habit. If it is a habit long enough, it becomes part of one's character. Marcus Aurelius, the ancient Roman teacher, warns in his famous "Meditations," "The soul is dyed the color of its thoughts."

The best defense against worry is to practice the art of forgiving at least twice a day, preferably in the early morning and in the late evening, and repeat one of the surest lessons known for mental health. It is offered to us in Holy Scripture by a man who was facing death.

Paul wrote, "Forgetting those things which are behind and reaching for those things which are before, I press toward the mark and the prize and the high calling..."

Fill your mind every day, and consciously choose the affirmations of your faith in your future and the world's future. Make this habit of your thinking for your life. If your soul is to be dyed, let it be dyed with the good hues and the glad colors.

The next insight was given to me in the writings of William Jennings, a very perceptive psychologist who wrote, "The essence of genius is to know what to overlook..."

In other words, learn what to pass by and what to forget. You can't do everything. Picking out the important things is basically the essence of genius.

Next, build for yourself inside of your own head, a place of quiet impenetrability. The President of the United States, the head of a large corporation, or the admiral on a modern flagship, each has a place which could best be called a "silence room."

There strategy is "planned and directions and consequences are thought through. If you have this in your own mind, whatever stress might be pushing you and if you can keep this spot quiet while you objectively think through your plans, your life may not be free from harassment, but you will be free from it.

Understand and commit to memory the great passages for you in the Book of Books, the Bible.

Be able to call quickly to mind these words of simple trust, words which are affirmation of your worth, and the care that is assured to you by Scripture and forms the "ground of your being." After that, learn how to shower your mind, to step into a mental shower and clear off all of the dirt, dust, and mud that it has gathered throughout the day. Clean your mind of all the anxiety, fear, and insecurity that becomes a source of infection and brings to you bad mental and spiritual health.

Nature abhors a vacuum, so choose what will fill your mind. Choose the positive thoughts that will lead you into the affirmation of life. For me it is, "God fills my mind with peace, courage, and contentment when I let Him, and I believe with all my soul that He hears my prayers."

If these do not destroy your depression, you may need to have skilled help to lead you through a searching self-examination to find the true causes of your anxiety.

Remember, a man wrapped up in himself makes a very small package. Become a part of activities which will bring a sense of belonging to a group and meet your responsibilities to that group. Be a part of something larger than yourself.

The final step is the most important. Build, and work out for yourself, an affirming faith in God which will implant a sense of purpose, meaning, and direction in the very act and essence of living for you.

Lady Astronauts Unlikely Within Next Few Years

By FRANK MACOMBER
Military-Aerospace Writer
Copley News Service

Gilpin Steinen may as well know it now as later: the ladies still are a decade or more away from flying in space.

Recently there were published accounts of how American women would be going aloft early in the U.S. manned space shuttle program, originally scheduled for test flights in 1978 or 1979.

Two conditions, one of them new, rule out female astronauts during pioneer space shuttle missions. The new one is President Nixon's order to chop shuttle funds sharply in the next six months and in the fiscal year to follow.

The old one is that the federal space agency will use up its reservoir of astronauts who have yet to fly in space before it writes "she" on the door of a shuttlecraft compartment.

Space agency officials say publicly the shuttle cuts will slow the program by a year or so, putting the first operational missions until 1981 or 1982.

But aerospace industry spokesmen claim the spending reductions may delay operational flights until 1983 or 1984.

Some components of the shuttle system still are in the research and development stage and budget trimming will slow the pace of this phase, they point out. The $200 million space agency cut decreed by the President is less than half the cost of a single Apollo lunar expedition—$455 million.

But aerospace firms have been warned by their Washington offices that deeper slashes by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration are in the works for the space budget for the fiscal year beginning next July 1.

In this event, the timetable for the first space shuttle flights could slip even further.

That's only half the story. The chapter is that some 20 astronauts who have spent years training for a space mission have yet to fly on one.

Only nine astronauts will fly on the three upcoming Skylab missions this year, and most of those are veterans of earlier Gemini or Apollo missions.

Consequently the still grounded astronauts will get first call for shuttle missions, ahead of any women, NASA officials concede, in all fairness to their dedication to the U. S. space program.

For example, of 10 astronaut-scientists still on the active list, only one has gone into space—Harrison (Jack) Schmitt, the bachelor geologist who flew to the moon on Apollo 17.

Nobody is trying to play freeze-out with the ladies. It's just for a while yet space must be a man's new world.

Attend Brunch for State Legislators

More than 100 Illinois legislators and 150 women representing Business and Professional Women's clubs throughout the state, including four from the Granite City chapter, attended a brunch at the First Presbyterian Church in Springfield, sponsored by proponents of the Equal Rights Amendment.

Mrs. Pauline Weir, president of the Granite City BPW Club, said purpose of the brunch was to permit women to discuss in person aspects of the ERA Bill with representatives from each district.

The club officer said points introduced to the legislators included a comparison with the new Illinois Constitution ratified overwhelmingly by voters two years ago. She said the constitution contains a "much stronger equal rights clause" than the proposed ERA legislation because it covers local governments and school districts.

Mrs. Weir said changes effected by the new state constitution have not resulted in a "decline of the family, integrated restaurants or lowering of moral standards." She said these are points emphasized by opponents of the ERA Bill.

It was noted that over 120,000 women responded to a survey conducted by a national magazine in 1972, with 66% supporting ERA legislation. The bill has passed in six states where the issue was submitted to voters in a referendum. The Equal Rights Amendment Bill, defeated by the Illinois Senate at an earlier session, is expected to be reintroduced in the Illinois General Assembly today, Mrs. Weir said.

Secretaries Hear Women's Political Role

"Women have become more concerned about their role in politics and their status in society, since the early 60's," Wayne Ault, an instructor in Political Science at Belleville Area College, told the National Secretaries Association members at their monthly dinner meeting at Charlie's Restaurant. "Along with this, there has been a noticeable attempt by businesses to increase their number of women executives."

Ault discussed at length the importance of women entering politics, and why there are too many lawyers, bankers and businessmen in government today.

He told of the new views which could be brought forth by women of benefit to the entire country. This viewpoint is President Nixon who has had a policy for some years of putting women in top-level government jobs which previously have been held by men.

The members were urged to become active in politics at a local level, maintain that interest and assume positions of leadership through working for the party of their choice.

In addition to 22 members, there were three guests at the meeting, Miss Ann Anderson, Miss Karen Marcyk, who is secretary to Neal R. Shulman, branch manager, E. F. Hutton and Co., and Miss Carol Lewis.

'WOMEN IN POLITICS' was the subject of a talk given by Wayne Ault, center, a political science instructor at Belleville Area Junior College, at a meeting of the Tri-Cities Chapter, National Secretaries Association. Shown with Ault are Mrs. Twila Edmonds, chapter president, at left and Mrs. Joyce Savage, who was installed as a new member during the meeting.

The slate included Mrs. Sally Graces, president; Mrs. Anne Smith, vice president; Mrs. Mary Gain, recording secretary; Mrs. Mary Ann Johnson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Betty Borsch, treasurer. Balloting on officers will be conducted at the May meeting of the chapter.

Attendance prizes were won by Mrs. Edith Headrick and a Chairman Marabeth McConnell.

Veterans' Group Plans Election

Veterans of World War I and Auxiliaries made plans for an election and installation of officers of the 4th District, to take place June 17 in Alton, during a district meeting, held last week at the VFW Post in Edwardsville.

A total of 100 members attended the 12:30 p.m. potluck dinner and meetings, conducted by District Commander Mike Campbell of Alton and Mrs. Emma Henderson of Collinsville, district auxiliary president.

Mrs. Kathryn Fellers of Barracks 34, who serves as district legislative chairman, spoke at the meeting, urging all members to write their congressmen and senators regarding pension legislation.

Other members of Barracks 34 attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. William C. Breidbach, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Conway and Mrs. Irene Hendricks.

Fresh Asparagus—Like A Breath of Spring

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County Extension
Adviser—Home Economics
University of Illinois,
Urbana-Champaign

The arrival of fresh asparagus at food stores is like the fresh breath of spring. A delight to serve, fresh asparagus goes with any meat, fish, or poultry. It adds crisp-tender texture and delicate flavor to eggs, cheese, rice, or macaroni dishes. Serve it hot with a luscious sauce, or cook and serve it chilled with your favorite salad dressing.

Fresh asparagus is available from mid-February through June with peak supplies from April to June.

To buy the freshest and best quality asparagus, follow these tips:

Look for closed, compact tips; smooth round spears; and a fresh appearance. A rich green color should cover most of the spear. Stalks should be tender almost as far down as the green extends. (Tender asparagus is brittle and easily punctured.)

Avoid tips that are open and spread out, moldy or decayed tips, or ribbed spears (spears with up and down ridges or that are not approximately round). These are signs of aging and mean tough asparagus and poor flavor. Also avoid excessively sandy asparagus, because it will be difficult to remove the sand in washing.

Fresh asparagus ages rapidly after cutting, so for the best flavor and tenderness, use within one or two days after purchase.

Store asparagus in a plastic bag or in a crisper in the refrigerator until ready to use.

Slightly wilted stalks sometimes will freshen if allowed to stand in cold water. One pound of asparagus will yield two to three servings.

To prepare asparagus for cooking, cut or break off each stalk as far down as it snaps easily. If you wish, remove scales with a knife. Wash thoroughly. Leave stalks whole or cut into 1-inch lengths.

For an easy way to cook whole spears, simply place them in two layers in a skillet, sprinkle with one teaspoon salt, and pour on boiling water to a depth of 1 inch. Cover and boil 12 to 15 minutes or until the lower part of the stalk is crisp and tender.

Special sauces for asparagus start with one cup white sauce. To make a medium white sauce, blend two tablespoons flour with two tablespoons fat, then combine with one cup milk. Stir constantly over low heat until thickened.

Try any of the variations that follow:

Cheese sauce: Cook one cup medium white sauce. Remove from heat and stir in one cup shredded Cheddar cheese. Blend well.

Milk hollandaise sauce: Make one cup of medium white sauce. Beat two egg yolks, stir a little hot white sauce into them, and stir mixture into rest of sauce. Stir in two tablespoons butter or margarine. Cook over hot water about 1 minute. Remove from heat and stir in one tablespoon lemon juice. Serve at once.

ENTHUSIASTIC CHEERLEADERS put forth a championship effort for Venice in all three state Class A games during the weekend. Nearly 1,000 Venice fans made the pilgrimage to Champaign. Mrs. Annetta Ohlendorf, wife of Red Devil Coach Bill Ohlendorf, is in charge of the Venice cheerleaders.

FALLING BEHIND Kaneland Saturday afternoon, Venice needed a boost. Coach Bill Ohlendorf gives pointed instructions to Devil Dan Severs. Kaneland downed Venice 46-34 in the semifinal game.

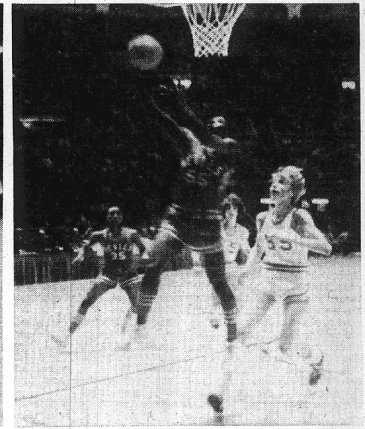

STATE TOURNAMENT SETTING as Venice and Kaneland collided for the right to advance to the state Class A championship game. Ridgeway later Saturday edged Kaneland 54-51 for first place. This view shows Venice on the offense while trailing 28-26.

Ron Henry took a pass from Ray Mosby and connected on a jump shot from the side to tie the score. But Kaneland then scored six straight points and, after a Henry goal, added ten more points in a row.

GOOD BALL CONTROL is demonstrated in the third-place game by Devil Ray Mosby (left, being framed like a picture by St. Anne's John Lee). Mosby passes to Sonny Wiley, center rear, who in turn was to relay the ball to Tony Sitton (31), in the foreground. Venice beat St. Anne 73-66.

6 Prep Soccer Stars To Play With Cougars

The signing of six outstanding high school soccer players who will enroll at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville this fall has been announced by Bob Guelker, SIUE soccer coach and athletic director.

All six of the prep soccer stars are natives of St. Louis. Four, Tim Twellman, Dan O'Sullivan, John Schaefering and Tony Giamanco, were key players on the newly crowned Missouri state championship St. Louis University High team.

Pointing up their blue-chip quality, all six have been named to the 22-player Missouri All-State soccer team. The other two prep stars who will become Cougars are Bruce Wismann, McCluer High, and Mark Moran, Aquinas High.

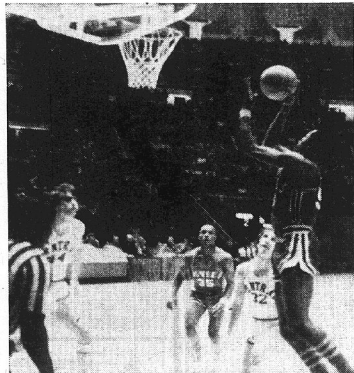

Twellman is the younger brother of SIUE's soccer and baseball star, Tom Twellman, and their older brother, Steve, who propped in soccer at Michigan State University and is now a star at center back for the Atlanta Chiefs.

Young Twellman scored both of the Junior Bulls' goals in their 2-1 victory over Rosary High in the recent state championship final that took seven overtime periods to complete.

Coach Ebbey Dunn started Twellman at wing forward early in the season, but midway in the campaign he moved him to the forward striker position. O'Sullivan, according to Guelker, will be a strong contender for one of the three back positions opened up by the upcoming June graduation of the Cougars' brilliant defensive trio of Kevin Howe, Vince Fassi and Denny Driscoll. They played key roles in pacing the Cougars to the NCAA college division soccer championship, SIUE's first national title. Schaefering, a hustling right fullback, came into his own in the state tourney with a brilliant performance. Giamanco, a big and very strong goalkeeper, posted 21 shutouts in each of his senior and junior prep seasons.

Wismann, a hard-playing outside left forward on last year's (1971-72) McCluer High Missouri state champions, was switched by his coach, Ralph Sigafoos, to the center forward role for the recently completed campaign. Says Guelker: "Bruce is a very strong shooter."

Moran, who was coached at Aquinas High by Vince Drake, is a highly skilled midfield player and striker who possesses good touch and a powerful shot. Said Guelker: "I particularly like his play-making ability."

VENICE CENTER Ron Henry drops in a field goal during his team's opening game in the state tournament. Henry was picked by the coaches as a member of the all-tournament first team. The ever-alert Ray Mosby (31) in this picture is poised and ready to move in under the basket for a possible rebound. Henry scored 29 points against Bloomington Central Catholic and 64 in the three games at Champaign.

CARL MACIOS

Carl Macios, 38, of 78 Cambridge Ave., is a candidate for assessor of Nameoki Township on the Truth in Action ticket. The current assessor, Joseph Cohan, is retiring.

A native and lifelong resident of this area, Macios is a Granite City High School graduate and attended the Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy, majoring in mechanical engineering.

He is employed as a cost engineer by McDonnell Douglas Corp. and formerly was a mechanical designer for Sverdrup & Parcel, St. Louis consulting engineering firm, and for Emerson Electric Co.

Macios is a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, a veteran of the U.S. Coast Guard, a member of his professional fraternity, Triagle Fraternity and the Fraternity of Architects and Engineers.

He is president of the Granite City Board of Education, of which he has been a member since 1960 and is seeking re-election this year. He has served as a township auditor since April of last year.

He and his wife, JoAnn, have six children, Carla, JoElaine, Marc, Cathleen, JoAnn and Julie.

His comment: "Being in public office the last seven years, I feel my experience will help the township officials to carry out the very fine programs that are now in effect and help to implement new ones. I would like to see that the programs are carried out."

"As assessor, I would seek the advice and help of experienced personnel, such as our present township assessor and county assessor."

"I would also like hire experienced personnel to help assist me in this office, because I believe through experienced personnel the office of assessor can be run efficiently."

"And I would propose and implement a policy to see that all taxpayers' property would be assessed on an equal basis."

TOM HILT

Tom Hilt, 35, of 2053 Rhodes St., Madison, is a candidate for the post of assessor of Nameoki Township on the Honesty and Integrity Party ticket.

Born in Granite City, he is a lifelong resident of this area. He attended Madison schools, an Air Force electrical instrument technician school and Santa Tech, and took extensive mathematics courses with McNeese State College.

He is employed as a switchman by the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad and formerly was an inspector for McDonnell Aircraft Corp. He served as a part-time field tax assessor in Madison County for the supervision of assessments.

Hilt is a member of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, president of the Nameoki Democratic Club and a member of the executive board of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee. He is a committee member of Nameoki Precinct No.

His comments: "I want to serve my constituents in the best possible manner, to give fair and equal representation to all of the people of Nameoki Township."

"I am aware that there are gross inequities in this township due to evaluations made other than on the spot."

"I intend to be personally on the job, and to evaluate and assess each parcel of property coming under my jurisdiction on an individual, fair and equal basis."

"Having actually worked for the supervisor of assessments doing evaluating and assessing in the field, I am conversant with the tax structure and assessing procedures in this township."

"Having this experience, I intend to answer the taxpayers' questions in a polite and satisfactory manner. I intend to serve the taxpayers of Nameoki Township."
